

Confirmation Rite With Mass -- A First For Rochester

CAN YOU TELL ME? Bishop Casey has a brief question-answer period with the 44 youngsters of Holy Name parish who were confirmed last Sunday at the 9:30 a.m. Mass. Parish holds services in Cardinal Mooney High School auditorium, while awaiting its new church, now a-building.

FAMILIAR SCENE—but not for much longer in these parts. Bishop Casey, new bishop-elect of the Paterson, N.J. Diocese, confirms two fifth-graders from Holy Name of Jesus parish in the on-stage sanctuary of the temporary church setting. Father William Gordinier is assisting the bishop.

women to apply for the special recognition being given by Pope Pius XII to groups of the laity who were striving toward solid perfection in the world. On March 19, 1955 Caritas Christi received the Decree of Praise from Rome making it a Secular Institute of Pontifical Right.

By that time 40 bishops had approved it for their dioceses and it had spread through France to Brazil and North Africa. In 1956 there were over 500 members and Caritas Christi had groups established in Belgium, Canada, England, Germany, Italy, the Near East, Switzerland, the United States and Vietnam. Now its members number over 1,000 in 27 countries. In the United States it is represented in 15 dioceses.

The age limit is 18 to 45 but consideration is given to applicants over 45 in exceptional cases. Members are unmarried or widowed. Daily they go about their tasks in offices, schools, the arts, factories, industries, on farms, serving God and their fellowmen manually, mentally and spiritually.

Monthly bulletins furnish material for study, reflection and prayer. Members attend a day of recollection every three months and an annual retreat that lasts for six days. The priestly support of a chaplain is given each diocesan group.

In the words of the one member who blesses our diocese by her presence: "Caritas Christi provides an understanding and organized yet flexible direction toward loving God—for His sake and loving others because of God."

In the Supplementary Notes on Caritas Christi which we received from the National Chaplain, the Very Rev. P. M. J. Clancy, O.P., we quote the closing paragraph:

"Members maintain discretion concerning their consecration, and do not reveal their membership in the Institute without approval. Therefore those seeking membership are requested not to discuss such an intention with anyone except a spiritual director or confessor."

How can this great imported Canadian cost no more than leading domestic whiskies?

Easy! It's imported in bulk to save you about $1.00 a bottle in tax and shipping. It's bottled here, but the whisky (like the taste) is all Canadian.

Cardinal Of Poor Dies at 75

Naples — (RNS) — Alfonso Cardinal Castaldo, Archbishop of Naples, who was widely known for extensive work on behalf of underprivileged children, died here at 75 after a brief illness. His death reduced membership in the Sacred College to 98.

Immediately on hearing of the cardinal's death, Pope Paul VI sent a message to the chancellor of the Naples archdiocese expressing his "deep grief" and hailing the virtues of "our beloved son."

Although known to few outside Italy, Cardinal Castaldo was noteworthy for deep interest in social problems. Associates said he was interested not merely in seeking to alleviate current social and economic problems in his See but in trying to shape better conditions for the future.

Wins K of C Oratoricals

Gene Zito, Kearney High student, recently took first place in the Rochester area finals of the Knights of Columbus Oratorical contest. Second place honors went to John Vorrasi of St. Andrew's Seminary. Paul G. Rombaut was chairman of the event.

Zito will now compete in the state finals on May 20 in Buffalo. Top prize in the state contest is a $1,800 scholarship; minimum prize is a $200 Savings Bond.

Judges in the Rochester contest were Miss Helen Gerhardt, principal of Public School No. 7; Kenneth Scariotta, Brighton School district language teacher and Thomas Brennan, English teacher in the Greece School district.
