FOUL PLAY seems to be taking place in this basketball game (?) between Sacred Heart Academy juniors and the school's lay faculty. No wonder the faculty team won the game.

All For Missions
Academy of the Sacred Heart students will stop at nothing to promote mission spirit. This was demonstrated when the Junior class challenged the lay faculty to a basketball game on March 11, to benefit the missions.

Our correspondent comments: "The teachers' spirit will long be remembered. We students thank them for putting on a great show. (See accompanying photo!) The faculty won, 11-10." She adds in a postscript: "We let them win!"

Recollecion For Women

St. Casimir's Rosary and Sacred Heart Society, Elmira will sponsor a day of recollection to be held Sunday, March 27 from 2 until 5:30 p.m.

Rev. Father Augustine, O.S.B., of Mount Saviour Monastery will conduct the conferences.

Arrangements are being made by Father Leonard P. Kujawski, Moderator.

Rarely can St. Agnes High School display a shot of its chaplain, Father Walter Cushing, since Father is usually the photographer himself. But he did put down his camera at the recent Freshman Science Club meeting to demonstrate the techniques of picture developing and printing. Viewing the process are Patricia Throne, Catherine Stoe, Diane Stapley, and Donna Povolio.

The Camera World

When he was a high-schooler himself, Father Walter Cushing was already processing his pictures in a makeshift "around the house" set-up. Now a near-professional in both skill and equipment, St. Agnes High School's chaplain conducts his own photographs, slides, and movies from new film to polished print.
