

Capitol Flag for Veterans

Congressman Barber Conable presented a flag from the nation's Capitol to Catholic War Veterans Commander John Falkner to be used at St. Patrick's Church, Rochester. The Veterans chose Michael Terrigino for the annual Father Nicholas Alitto award. More than 100 attended the flag and award ceremony which followed a Mass and breakfast at St. Patrick's.

Career Day At De Sales

Geneva—Several professions were represented plus a dozen occupations when DeSales High School held its first Career Day program recently.

The afternoon program was on the theme "The Key To Your Future" and was a Student Council event. According to Sister Gustace, Council moderator, considerable enthusiasm was shown by both students and speakers.

A general meeting opened the program with Verion Hyatt, retired Gotham school principal, as speaker. Two sessions followed in which various invited guests representing different fields of work and professions outlined their jobs and answered questions of students.

Requiem Sung For Mary Kelly

Newark—Requiem Mass for Mrs. Mary D. Kelly was offered by Father Joseph M. McDonnell, pastor at St. Michael's Church in Newark on Friday, March 25, 1966. Mrs. Kelly, who lived at 222 Prospect St., was the widow of the late David M. Kelly. She died on Tuesday, March 22.

The 88-year old woman had been a resident of Newark for 64 years. She was a member of the Rosary Altar Society and an auxiliary member of the Legion of Mary.

She leaves three daughters, Miss Mary Alice Kelly, Miss Margaret Kelly and Mrs. Francis (Elizabeth) Smith, all of Newark; one son, Edward D. Kelly of Rochester; and three grandchildren.
