France Bans

Nun Movie
 Paris—(NC)—The French government has banned a new film version of Denis Diderot's novel "The Nun on the Grounds" that it is offensive to Catholics here and abroad.

The decision overruled a vote by the Film Censorship Commission which had recommended that the film be released for persons over 18 years of age. It was the first time the government has availed itself of the right to veto a commission ruling.

Diderot's novel written 200 years ago is on the Catholic Index of Forbidden Books. It concerns a girl who is forced into a convent and is killed when she tries to leave it.
