Victorian Age Portrait Scheduled at Nazareth

"We Are Not Amused," a unique theatrical portrait of the Victorian Age Crowder and Eric Salmon of Theater Outlook of England

The script, which mirrors events of that contradictory and energetic era, consists entirely of Victorian prose, poetry, letters, diaries, newspapers, political speeches, plays, novels and essays made dramatically exciting by skilful selection and juxtaposition.

Writers from both England and America — Whitman, Arnold, Twain, Browning, Disraeli, Darwin, Huxley, Lincoln, Melville, Carlyle, Dickens, Emerson, Ruskin, Rossetti and others, including the Queen — will be heard in this presentation of an era.

Eric Salmon, who directs as well as appears in "We Are Not Amused," is known for his directing of Milton's "Samson Agonistes" at the Edinburgh International Festival, Shakespeare's "Henry IV" in Shrewsbury Castle, a television production of "Six Characters in Search of an Author," and the recent New York production of Ugo Betti's "Troubled Waters."

Janet Crowder has played, in England and America, a great deal of the standard and classical repertory—Lady Teazle in "The School for Scandal," Hermione in "The Winter's Tale," Pegen Mike in "Playboy of the Western World," Lady Percy in "Henry IV." She has combined this experience with appearances in modern plays as varied as those by Tennessee Williams, Ionesco and Pirandello.

The event is open to the public.

Moderators Panel Listed

The priest moderators of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will be featured panelists next Sunday afternoon, April 24, when the D.C.C.W. holds its quarterly board meeting at St. Alphonsus hall in Auburn.

With Mrs. John O'Brien of Webster acting as discussion leader, the priest panelists will discuss the role of the D.C.C.W. in the light of Vatican Council II guidelines.

A 2 p.m. coffee hour will precede the business meeting. Mrs. Thomas Stapleton, Cayuga Deane's president, will be in charge of the coffee hour. D.C.C.W. moderator, Mrs. Ronald Gledhill will call the business meeting to order at 2:30 p.m.

Business agenda includes reports from deaneary presidents and diocesan committee chairmen, as well as election of officers for 1966-67.

The panel discussion is slated for 3:15 p.m. A religious service, conducted by Father E. Leo McManus, D.C.C.W. moderator, will conclude the meeting at 4:30 p.m. with Benediction in the church.

Waverly CDA Offers Grants

GOD LOVE YOU Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen

Your daily newspaper will give you a story about the people, important and unimportant, who have broken the Commandments during the day. But if you would like to know how many good souls there are who keep the Commandments, sit at my desk and read the spiritual outpourings of the good and the saintly. In the correspondence immediately before me, I note first a deep sense of thanksgiving for the blessings of God. When reading MISSION these people see how much more blessed they are than others, and they seek to balance things by a little sacrifice. "God has been very generous to me. This is the least I can do in return—from now on I intend to give as much of my pay as possible to the most worthy charity, The Society for the Propagation of the Faith." This note accompanied a check for $50 sent by a young man who felt that he was "able to live on less than half (his) salary." Thanksgiving is dependence, and the absence of it, as in the case of the nine lepers, saddens the Heart of Christ.

Secondly, it is noticeable that generally it is the poor who help the Missions. They seem to have a sort of spiritual antenna on their souls which makes them sensitive to the needs of others in mission lands. Perhaps the reason that Our Lord began His Beatitudes with poverty was because it is the condition of all Christian compassion. There is a third striking note that all these letters have in common. Many of those who have little give even more than they can afford. This is a sample letter of a good woman who sent $3 saying: "A year ago I promised $7.50 if my husband did not go on strike. I have not been able to get that amount together at any one time, so here is part of it. I hope I can gather the rest soon. I know what it is to need medication. My husband had a heart attack and they found that he had diabetes also. That means pills for both. Our youngest daughter has epilepsy and needs dilantin and phenobarbital. She and I both have asthma and an allergy and need tablets and ointments. I hope that this $3 will help some sick child in the Missions." Mrs. A.C.

Almost all of the gifts included in these three classes were between $1 and $50. Are there not in the United States priests and lay people who would be willing to give in proportion to these good people? We know that there are many appeals but there is only one—Mission society which cares for all missionaries in all parts of the world and that is the Society that belongs to the Holy Father. There is another reason—in these trying times the Church in America must save itself through increased prayer, sacrifices, holy hours and above all by sharing our superabundance with the poor of the world. Let me hear from you: God-Love-You!

GOD LOVE YOU Mrs. L.R. for $3. "This is small, but I had to save pennies to send it." ... To Mr. C.R. "We are people of modest means. We don't have a television set or a car, but we have a good home and a garden and so we manage to get along. In thanksgiving for these gifts we are sending $1,000 to help those less fortunate."

The color of each of the WORLD MISSION ROSARY'S decades symbolizes one of the five continents of the world where missionaries are laboring to bring souls to Christ. Those of you who cannot go to the Missions can strengthen those who work in your place by praying for them. To receive the WORLD MISSION ROSARY which has been blessed by Bishop Sheen, send your request and an offering of $2 to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 386 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 386 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y. 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 56 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.
