W. Steinwachs Funeral Held

Funeral Mass for William F. Steinwachs, retired Rochester Home Builder, was offered by Monsignor John M. Duffy in St. Augustine's Church, Friday, April 15.

Mr. Steinwachs, 83, of 737 Arnett Blvd., a charter member of the Rochester Home Builders' Association and Real Estate Board of Rochester died April 12, 1966.

He immigrated to America from Germany in 1900 at 17. He began private home building in 1910 and from then until his retirement in 1947 he built many homes in Rochester particularly in the 19th and adjoining wards.

For many years he served as president of the German American Welfare Society and the Hessen Benevolent Society and was a member of the House Committee of Rochester German Club. Following World Wars I and II, he was an enthusiastic war relief worker.

Mr. Steinwachs was a member of St. Augustine's Holy Name Society for 46 years. His wife, the former Anna Papper, died on Nov. 18, 1964 ending 37 years of married life.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Irving F. (Helen) Nien-timp; two sons, Alden G. and Francis W. Steinwachs, nine grandchildren, one great grandchild, one brother, Otto of Cambria, Calif., and many nieces and nephews.

Faith Education for Adults

St. Lawrence parish in Greece will launch an adult education program with the theme "Christian Growth in the Home."

Father David Connor will inaugurate the series Sunday, May 1, at 4 p.m. with a discussion of the Mass and its intended significance in daily life. Mass will be celebrated and the congregation will participate in the prayers and chants.

Subsequent speakers and topics will include Donald Robinson, Rochester attorney, "Christianity in Business," Father Daniel Tormey, "Christian Living in the Home," and Father Gerald Dunn, "Teen-agers and their Problems."

The Sunday afternoon series is open to the public. Information and reservations available from St. Lawrence rectory, 1013 North Greece Rd., UN 5-3946.

Arranging the series are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lester, Father Thomas O'Brien, curate at St. Lawrence parish, and Mr. and Mrs. John Tschieder. (Varden Photo)

Merkel's No-Hitter Leads Aquinas To 8-0 Victory

By WHIT JOHNSON

Behind the no hit pitching of Dave Merkel, Aquinas Institute opened its baseball this week by downing Greece Arcadia, 8-0.

The Irish nine, which compiled a 15-3 record last season, is made up of 10 seniors, 4 juniors and 2 sophomores. Returnees include 7 lettermen.

Father Lawrence Carney, in his third and final season as Aquinas baseball mentor, said: "I like this squad. We have more depth than in the past and considerably more experience." Father Carney recently was appointed to St. Thomas High School in Houston, Texas, effective July 1st.

The Little Irish pitching corps is strong, made up of seniors Dave Merkel and Dick Vitale and junior Mike Sammartino. Merkel, who blanked Greece Arcadia on Monday, compiled six victories last season. Vitale won 3.

Greg Manley, slated for catching duty, is a good receiver and has an excellent arm. He could be Aquinas' best hitting catcher in years. Last year he averaged over 300. Backing him up is John Nazzaro, a sophomore. The infield is a big question mark, but it's the kind of question that Father Carney likes.

He has a mixture of veterans and juniors and all are fighting for first string spots.

At first base, Buzz Maiuri will probably get the call. Rick D'El-tore will be a key reserve. Pat Murphy looks likely for second base while George Prescott will probably tie down third base. Dave D'El-tore will get first crack at shortstop.

Outfielders include Carl Dostler, Richard Kapitan, Carl Pelow, Rich Dinolfo and Tom Connolly.

Latin Revival After 'Twilight'

Vatican City — (NC) — Pope Paul VI predicted that the Latin language, now in a "twilight," will revive.

Addressing 400 Latinists who had come to Rome from throughout the world for a convention on the Latin language, the Pope stated that the Catholic Church's "official language" is Latin despite the new vernacular liturgy.

Latin, he said, "will live again with greater impetus" despite fears for its survival.

Plan Dinner Dance

Parents Association of the Academy of the Sacred Heart will sponsor a dinner dance at Oak Hill Country Club on April 29 at 7:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Odenbach are general chairmen. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lecesse will entertain committee members at their home on Grosvenor Road preceding the dinner.
