Council Book Ban Denied

Los Angeles — (RNS) — A book reportedly "banned" from Los Angeles Catholic high schools has not been prohibited, according to Msgr. Donald Montrose, archdiocesan superintendent of high schools and colleges.

He said it is freely available for their use.

The book, "Documents of Vatican II," is edited by Father Walter M. Abbott, S.J. at Fairfield, Conn., recently, the Jesuit claimed that the book had been opposed without a reading by Father Montrose.

Father Abbott, an associate editor of America magazine, had charged that the book had been banned because it contained "commentaries by non-Catholic theologians."
