Nun Dies, Rehabilitated Ten Thousand Alcoholics

Cleveland — (RNS) — Sister Mary Ignatia, C.S.A., pioneer in the treatment of alcoholics, died April 1 at the motherhouse of the Sisters of Charity of St. Augustine in nearby West Richfield. She was 77.

The shy nun founded and directed the world-famous Rosary Hall at St. Vincent Charity Hospital and is credited with rehabilitating more than 10,000 persons during the nearly 40 years she worked with men and women alcoholics.

She was an ardent supporter of Alcoholics Anonymous and received standing ovations at its national conventions. She lectured frequently throughout the U.S., and her Rosary Hall salarium was duplicated in many American cities, in Canada and several hospitals of Ireland.

Sister Ignatia first became interested in alcoholism in 1928 while a nurse at St. Thomas Hospital in Akron. Sometime later, she began to accept patients of a physician co-founder of A.A. St. Thomas (this became the first religious institution to accept alcoholics on a regular basis).

In 1952 she established a larger refuge, the famous Rosary Hall in St. Vincent Charity Hospital here. About 1,000 alcoholics went through the hall each year in a treatment that ranged from six to 10 days. It is estimated that some 60 to 65 per cent of her patients won the battle with alcoholism.

They are Joan Mascaro, president; Marty Strodel, 1st vice-president; Mary Kelly, 2nd vice-president; Jo Ann Kunz, academic co-ordinator; Ann O'Halloran, spiritual and social co-ordinator; Kathy Kelly, treasurer; and Ann Milliken, secretary.
