

GAZA: SAMSON AND DELILAH

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

GIVING SIGHT TO THE BLIND IN THE GAZA STRIP

It happened in Gaza centuries before Christ. . . . Samson, a leader of strength and courage, was deceived by Delilah and captured by the Philistines. They gouged out his eyes, leaving him helplessly blind. . . . In Gaza today, not far from Samson's tomb, 76 blind boys and girls (all of them Moslems) are conquering blindness in the Holy Father's Pontifical Mission Center for the Blind. They learn how to read and write (through Braille), play ball together in a sun-baked playground (the ball has a bell inside), and they'll support themselves tomorrow as teachers, rum-makers, basket-weavers. . . . The Pontifical Mission Center is the first (and only) school for the blind in this part of the Arab world. To Moslems it's a beacon of Christian witness. . . . Adopt a sightless boy (or girl) for the next 12 months ($120)? Only $10 a month ($2.50 a week) guarantees an education for him (or her). Please write to us, in thanks to God that you can see!

- WHAT WILL YOUR GIFT DO FOR THE BLIND?
- $2,400—Buy a new school bus
 - $1,500—Part of the costs for one more work shop
 - $1,000—Part of the costs of one more classroom
 - $300—Overall cost per child for one year
 - $100—Part of the equipment for a classroom
 - $11—Buy lunch for one year for a youngster under 12
 - $5—Buy clothes for a blind boy
 - $4—Provide books in Braille, the finger language
 - $2—Buy lunch for two months for a blind child

MEMORIES IN WHITE

Remember what you wore on your First Communion Day—for three First Communions in the Diocese (Lebanon) refugee camp, 38 little girls will be thrilled to have white shoes, a dress and veil. Outfit a girl for $10?
