Inter-Faith Center Planned at Geneseo

Geneseo — Catholic faculty and students of State University College here will participate in plans for construction of an Inter-Faith Center adjacent to the college campus.

Father Thomas R. Statt, Catholic chaplain at the state educational institution, is a member of the newly-formed Inter-Faith Center of Geneseo Inc., a corporation which will erect and maintain a proposed inter-faith building.

Planned for construction on a one-acre plot adjacent to the college, the center will have no official connection with the State University. Plans were announced at an alumni day luncheon last week.

Members of the Inter-Faith board include representatives of ten denominations, as well as members of the college faculty and the community-at-large.

It is hoped that groundbreaking and construction of the new building, which will be available for the use of any and all religious groups, will be undertaken in autumn.

Detailed plans for the building principal portion of which will be an inter-faith chapel to seat 400 persons, will accompany progress of a fund campaign to be inaugurated this summer. Contributions will be sought from faculty and students, alumni, student and alumni parents, religious groups, and the community. Included on the board for the proposed center are:

Baptist — Rev. C. Norman Moran, Won Zoon Yoon; Christian Science — Lloyd Kniffen; Episcopal — Rev. David Carter, Dr. Spencer Roemer; Jewish — Murray J. Cohen; Lutheran — Rev. Delbert Tiemann, Mrs. Roy McTarnaghan; Methodist — Rev. Kelsey Bicknell, David Parfitt; Presbyterian — Dr. Daniel Hall, Mrs. Benjamin Stroetzel; Roman Catholic — Rev. Thomas R. Statt, Richard Haviland; Unitarian — Dr. James Scholes, Mrs. Bruce Klee; United Church of Christ — Rev. Robert Hathaway, Dr. Kathryn E. Beck; Intersarsity Fellowship — Donald Trasher.
