Cage Coach, Jim Flynn, Leaving Notre Dame High

By ALLAN MALETTE
Varsity basketball coach Jim Flynn has resigned as of the end of the season at Notre Dame High School. As of now, no replacement has been named.

Coach Flynn has been most successful in his years of work with basketball teams. In 14 years of coaching, his teams have compiled 208 victories against 78 losses. He also has coached five league champions.

Perhaps the most glorious memory Coach Flynn has is one while at Academy. His team, led by the great Ernie Davis, compiled a 52-game winning streak.

At Notre Dame Flynn has had an overall record of 6333. His two top teams had records of 173 and 164.

Negro Priest Leads Singing

A widely known Negro priest and composer of music sung at Mass, Father Clarence Rivers, will be in Rochester, Wednesday, June 8.

Father Rivers will lead the singing at the Mass at 7 p.m. in St. Bridget's Church, Gorham St. and preach the sermon.

Mass will mark the third birthday of the St. Martin de Porres Center launched by Mrs. Margaret Muchard in 1963.

The public is invited to the Mass to be celebrated by Father Joseph Gerstz, S.J., the Center's spiritual director.

Roman Drama Idea For Latin Teachers

High school Latin teachers may uncover a new modus operandi at St. John Fisher College this summer. The idea is the brainchild of Richard Urban, instructor in Classical Languages at Fisher and will be developed in his Summer Session course, Latin 331 "Roman Drama."

Urban will guide the class in exploring the possibility of using Roman drama as the basis for more interesting and more meaningful advanced high school Latin courses.

Plays by Plautus, Terence, Seneca, and others will be read in translation as well as in the original in the three-hour credit course, which is designed to broaden the background of the
