GOD LOVE YOU
Most Reverend
Fulton J. Sheen

"Every anti-Christian is a half Christian gone mad," writes Helmut Thielicke. There is some historical background for this, for Judas proved that the greatest enemies of the Church are often those who have been cradled in her sacred associations. He alone knew where to find Our Lord after dark. And because the Body of Christ is so sacred, its betrayal must always be prefaced by some mark of affection: "Hail Rabbi, and he kissed Him." Similarly, those who attack the Church always begin their articles "I am a Catholic, but" "I am a Catholic mother, but" "I am a priest, but" "I am a nun, but."

In the parable of the soil and the seed, our dear Lord likened some minds to the seed that fell among thorns. They received the grace, but there was a stifling growth of good and thorns, of faith and unbelief, of intellectuality and superficiality, of sacramental regeneration and "Popel-generation," magazine theology and protest banner, the City of God and the Secular City. Then, when the first catastrophe comes, the first challenge to their ego, the first splinter from the Cross, they leave. The Christians who give their finger, but refuse to give their hand are often far worse than the downright Marxist—"If My enemy had done this..." Then one day, they slam the door on the Face of Crowned Compassion while boasting that they seek and knock. At this moment in the history of the Church, many of the forces of disruption are organized, given banner and print, while the vast army with a Cross on their hear, are without a voice. The cry of the wolf is heard above the bleating of the sheep without a shepherd.

What must we do? Begin to make reparation. No noise, no circulars, no crowds to hear singing nuns but a deep participation in the loneliness of Christ on the Cross when He cried, "Why hast Thou abandoned Me?" The atonement for the "But culture" of our time will be: first, a steeping of ourselves in Sacred Scripture, and second, the realization that we cannot be Christian without offering ourselves for others. Scripture teaches us this lesson as its Lord, in the language of William Blake, says to us: "Wouldst thou love one who never died for thee, or ever die for one who had not died for thee? And if God die for man and giveth not Himself eternally for man, man could not exist; for man is love, as God is Love." Third, to concretize our reparation for many failings among us — priests, brothers, sisters and laity — by aiding missionaries in Africa, Asia and Latin America, where the average amount we spend on tin cans alone (not the contents) is equal to twice the annual income of the people of those lands. We are too rich; they are too poor. Remember Our Lord said that the four men who let down the palsied man through the roof, were responsible for his healing, not the faith of the man himself. We are at a point where as Hamlet said, "By indirections find directions out." Save the faith in this country, by building it up elsewhere. Grace is not cheap. Meditate on the Scriptures daily, and then help the Holy Father help all the mission societies and the poor of the whole world. How many will write to me among the laity, priests and religious and offer to do these things to sweep the butts and garbage off the floor of the church and to propagate the Faith? God Love You!

God Love You to E. L. "Enclosed is one lonely $10 bill found sometime ago and since I cannot return it I think you could let it join you and go to work where it can do some good." ... to Mrs. H. M. for $4,000 attached to a column ... to thank God for being so good to me and my family. May this help a little bit in His works."

The GOD LOVE YOU medal, a lovely cameo medal of the Madonna of the World is one you would be proud to give or delighted to receive. Designed by the world-renowned jeweler, Harry Winston, and blessed by Bishop Sheen, the GOD LOVE YOU medal is available in classic Florentine gold finish or pure sterling silver and may be obtained by sending your request and corresponding offer to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10001. $2 small sterling silver; $3 small 10k gold filled; $5 large sterling silver; $10 large 10k gold filled.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail to: Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.

IT'S EVEN HOTTER IN INDIA

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

HOW TO KEEP COOL THIS SUMMER

Here's a way to beat the heat this summer. Think of India. ... Reports Grail member Elizabeth Reid: "The heat is an incredible 114 degrees. Men in ragged, dusty loin cloths are crowding into the city to get near some source of water. They walk in slow motion, or they're stretched out in the thin shade with arms and legs widespread. There's hardly any life left in them." ... Think of the penniless Franciscan friars in Marakathara. Air conditioning? Two walls of their chapel have collapsed, still they keep to their prayers. Only $1,800 will rebuild a decent place for God. ... Think of the homeless, helpless unemplyed now streaming into Cochín in Kerala State. Many are Catholics and they have Mass in a shed, but they'll build a real church for themselves labor-free (in your loved ones' memory, named for your favorite saint) if you can supply the materials ($3,700). ... Find it hard to sleep on hot nights? Sixteen exhausted Sacred Heart Sisters sleep on the floor in one cramped room in Anikad because people needed their bedroom as a chapel. A permanent chapel (a memorial to fast) will cost only $2,450, and the nuns will pray for you always. ... Any gift for sweating, hungry India ($500, $200, $100, $75, $50, $25, $15, $10, $5, $2) will make you feel better (and cooler) this summer. Please send what you can.

LOVE DOESN'T DIE

Married late in life, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. were given a son they named Paul for their favorite saint. Right away, they began to set aside a fund for Paul's college education, but when he was eight years old, the dad was killed by an auto. The K's then used the college fund to train native priests in the Near East (only $100 per year each). One priest, an orphan, chose the name "Paul"—for his favorite parents.
