Discolored Carmelite Priests and Brothers are men of prayer and solitude who are bringing the message of Christ to today's world.

Become Catholics at Same Time

Two sisters, married to Catholics, recently were received into the Catholic Church in St. Anne's parish, having completed their instructions at the same time.

They are Mrs. Robert E. (Beverly) Kingston, of 35 Bradford Rd., Brighton, and Mrs. Hugh A. (Mary) Czapranski, 8 Coronet Rd., Henrietta. The Czapranskis have been married for 16 years, the Kingstons for five.

Both sisters have three children, but Mrs. Kingston has three daughters and Mrs. Czapranski has three sons.

They both took instructions in an inquiry class conducted at St. Anne's parish by Fathers Metzger and Robert Bradley. (For Mrs. Kingston, it was the second time—she was still undecided after her previous course of instructions.)

Both were confirmed at St. Ambrose Church on May 15, providing an occasion for a joint celebration by both families.

African Progress Said 'Phenomenal'

Dr. Paul S. Lalonde, recently returned from his annual safari against toothaches in Africa, reported to the Courier that "changes are unbelievable in that area of the world."

Buildings, roads, industries are being constructed he said, where only a few years ago were tangled jungles or "sleepy towns."

He described developments as "phenomenal."

The dentist from Rochester spent his six months stint in the missions this year in Nigeria where the Irish-founded Medical Missionaries of Mary staff 12 hospitals, each with 10 to 12 clinics.

St. Luke's hospital at Arua he formed "the first, the largest and the best" of the Missionaries' hospitals in Africa.

As cities develop in that area there is a great potential for service," he said and listed an urgent need for $250,000 worth of dental, medical and surgical equipment plus personnel and funds.

THE NUNS, he said, work around the clock, seven days a

Men's Weekend Retreat Fees Raised

Like the day-to-day cost of living, the cost of spiritual living is going up too.

Retreat fees at Notre Dame Retreat House, Alexander St., Rochester, have been boosted from the $15 weekend rate set in 1930 to $25.

The increase was voted at a recent meeting of 100 members of the Laymen's Retreat League.

A committee headed by Ralph Lorio, gave a graphic report of the heavy financial losses the movement would continue to sustain if it neglected to face the reality of rising costs over the past thirty years.

Redemptorist Father Michael G. Downing, retreat master, reported to the members on the rapid progress being made in construction of new Notre Dame Retreat House at the new site overlooking Canandaigua Lake.

He indicated that at the present rate the new quarters would be ready for occupancy in early November.

Executive vice-president William Kramer, who has been spear-heading a much needed reorganization of the League announced the election of the following District Coordinators for Monroe County:

Leon Battle of St. Rita's Parish, Webster; Ernest Cala of St. Andrew's, Rochester; Joe Evangelista of Assumption, Fairport; Bill Finn of St. Ann's, Rochester; Joe Golden of St. Theodore's, Louis Gurney of Holy Redeemer; Adel Holland of Immaculate Conception; Bill Kearney of St. Margaret Mary's; John Kovay of Mother of Sorrows; Bob Molinaro of St. John of Rochester, Fairport; Gerry Paradise of St. Louis, Pittsford; Bob Sanger of St. Cecilia's, Rochester; Bill Schirmer of Queen of Peace.

Monroe County is being used as a testing ground and, with the anticipated success of this reorganizational plan, parish coordinators for the remaining counties in the Diocese will be elected in the future.

Father Richard Moran closed the business meeting with congratulations to all present for the dedication they have shown and an impassioned plea that they continue their efforts in this important Apostolate thus inspiring the new Leaders in this expanding organization.

INDIA: A JOB FOR YOU

HELP NATIVE SISTERS HELP HELPLESS BOYS AND GIRLS

If your daughter or sister were a nun in southern India, you'd show this letter to your friends... Write Sister Mary James, the Mother General "In Valpur, a backward steaming village, our Franciscan Clarist Sisters are old at 40, worn out and frequently ill, since they lack even the basic necessities. They have no convent or chapel, and they eat and sleep on the ground. They die in Valpur, rather than desert the helpless children, however. These children will be India's salvation tomorrow."

The inability to read or write is "one of the great plagues of our times," Pope Paul says. A sure way to fight illiteracy? Train a teaching Sister overseas... We'll send you the name of a young girl who needs help to become a Sister, you may write to her, and she will write to you and pray for you. And you may pay for her two-year training at your own convenience (the full $300 right now, or $150 a year, or $12.50 a month). She'll be 'your' Sister as long as she lives.

GOD LOVE YOU Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen

Every beggar has a technique. The best of all techniques I ever witnessed was that of a beggar outside the Cathedral of Barcelona in Spain. He said to me, "Where else could you find a better intercessor for you?" He was referring to the words of Our Lord that we should use our money for the poor, for they become our advocates and intercessors in the kingdom of heaven. For over 16 years we have been begging for the Holy Father's Society for the Propagation of the Faith. When we started, we had to decide on a technique or a method of appeal. We were strongly urged to use advertising "agencyism" but distributed by His Vicar, we decided on the spiritual since we were carrying the basket for Christ's poor to be approach which is based on three principles. First, never ask the people to give; ask them to sacrifice. When we give, we offer something that is not ourselves — for example a dollar. When we sacrifice, the thing we give is a symbol of our union with Christ and the Cross. That is why in MISSION we have told you that we do not want to help the MISSIONS without helping you draw nearer to the Sacred Heart. Your sanctification must never be divorced from your sharing with the poor.

The second principle is thanksgiving. Recalling that only one of the 10 who were cured of leprosy returned to thank Our Lord, we resolved that we would do three things: 1) Say "God Love You" to each person who emptied himself so that the missionary mandate of the risen Christ might be fulfilled. Just as we would say "I love you for that tennis racket you gave me" so we wanted you to know that not I, nor the Pontifical Society, but God Himself loves you for being mission-minded; 2) Our office began saying the Rosary every day, or else having Bible reading with a homily, offering this time for our benefactors. This has been continuous for 16 years; 3) We resolve not just to "remember" you in the Mass (you are remembered without a gold certificate to that effect) but to personally renew the sacrifice on Calvary every Sunday for each of you who made a sacrifice during the week — and we have not failed one week in 16 years. The third principle we decided upon was to be catholic, not tribal, nor nationalistic, but serve the entire Church, all the missionary societies and the whole world — everywhere where Christ is in need. Believe me, this beggery business is very distasteful to me personally and if it were not for the Vicar of Christ and the love of the Church (for catholic means universal in reach) we would have given it up a long time ago.

Has the technique worked? Yes and No. Yes with the poor — by the poor I mean those who have little, such as one poor retarded child who recently sent us her collection of quarters. With the rich, No. Rarely, if ever, do those who have much help the Holy Father in serving all the Missions of the Church. Should we change? No! Because the Lord has blessed the Pontifical Mission Society and every day at Mass in the offering for the living, we say these words from Sacred Scripture, "Deus incrementum dedit." "God gives the increase." He does it; we do nothing. You who are God's, do His work! Thanks for continuing, God Love You!

GOD LOVE YOU to Anon for $5. "Please accept this in memory of M. & A. D. who have passed on to their rewards in heaven, but who always thought of the welfare of others before themselves. Although I am not Catholic, I want to help as much as I am able, so you will hear from me again soon." ... to B. B. "Enclosed is my check for $500 to help the Missions. I feel obliged to help those who have none of the material things of life."
