

20 Religious Orders Attend Summer School

Sisters from twenty different religious communities in ten states are studying at Nazareth College this summer. In addition to Sisters of Mercy, Sisters of Charity, School Sisters of Notre Dame, Trinitarians, and Sisters of St. Joseph from the Rochester diocese, there are Franciscan Sisters from New York State and Ohio; Daughters of Charity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus from Vermont, New Hampshire, Connecticut and New York State; School Sisters of Notre Dame from Long Island and Massachusetts; Ursuline Sisters from Connecticut and Long Island; Sisters of Christian Charity from New Jersey and Sisters of Charity of Halifax from Bermuda, Nova Scotia and New York.

The summer-school student body also includes undergraduate students from 40 different colleges who are taking pre-college work, teachers who are taking enrichment courses or completing certification requirements, and a number of women who are taking courses for their cultural value without any vocational goal in mind.

Fisher Student Where Action

Personal involvement the action is' is making summer to be remembered. Two St. John Fisher sophomores.

Richard "Hal" Parnallee, chemistry major from Orange, N.J., is one of the volunteers assigned to the Martin de Porres House of Chicago's West Side slum district.

In Kansas City, Mo. Barry is in the midst of a week "apostolic" pro-Christian service" sponsored by the Society of Our Lady Most Holy Trinity, Holy East Rockaway, N.Y.

At the Martin de Porres Parnallee works with volunteers, six seminars one other male lay members of the Society of Our Lady Most Holy Trinity, Holy East Rockaway, N.Y.

Seven ty under-neighborhood children rolled in the day at tin-da-Porres House. Under is personally responsible for seven or eight of the stars.

Further west in Kansas Brian Barry, who is a major at St. John Fisher, is currently conducting an orientation consisting of formal lectures by priests, and laymen.

Assigned to an Italian in the inner-city area City with a Basilian (one of four Basilian) participating in the program as his partner, Barry is a morning minister. He gives catechetical instruction and assists in taking census.

He and his partner the parish rectory. Barry provides them with but each volunteer personal expenses himself to a $50.00 expense cover the cost of this program. Volunteering pay for their transport and from Kansas City.

Parnallee's assignment the Cabrini Project in whose congregation is mately 80% Puerto Rican located in a neighborhood the population of 20. Almost sixty teenagers rolled in the six weeks three quarters of the Rican.

Volunteers and the meet twice daily for sessions. Topics such relations, community and job opportunities considered for one week entertainment consisting Ping-Pong, etc. Evening meetings. For other sections of Chicago, community and additional information under consideration.

Parnallee also has interested in the-store of the movement in slum-dwellers to financial payments from slumlord as a means these owners of ings to repair and improvements.

Area residents have "Union To End Street" direction of Dr. Mar King's Southern Christian Leadership Conference, headquartered in the Street Congregation a block from Maritan House. Although on picketing by court tenants did win the negotiate with their
