Prelate Seeks Laity Advice

Wheeling, W. Va. (NC)—Bishop Joseph H. Hodges has asked that meetings be held in the fall in all parishes so that laymen may voice suggestions for carrying out the teachings of Vatican Council II throughout the diocese.

Plans for the meetings are being made by a special diocesan synod preparatory commission.

'An Eye to the Future'

Nazareth College became the "dream college" of several eighth and ninth graders after their visit to the campus this summer.
Mrs. Robert Smett alerted them to the high school courses required for admission and outlined the Liberal Arts Program.
Miss Sue Sutkus of Camillus assisted by Miss Paulette Monachino, Fairport and Miss Eileen Driscoll, Cairo, Egypt took the students in small groups to visit classrooms, the art department, the library, the dormitories, and the new building sites.
The emphasis in the Enrichment Program is placed on fostering purposeful academic interests.
