St. Nicholas Pastor Seminary Rector

Rev. Raymond Shashaty, a priest of the Basilian Salvatorian Order and pastor of St. Nicholas Roman Catholic Church of the Byzantine Rite, will assume new duties as rector of St. Basil's Seminary in Methuen, Massachusetts Monday, Sept. 12.

Father Shashaty came to Rochester less than a year and a half ago from St. Basil's Seminary, where he taught church history, homiletics and Arabic, and also served as vocation director.

In Father Shashaty's pastoral at St. Nicholas, two important parochial activities began:

As seminary rector, Father will be in charge of training future priests of the Melkite Rite. St. Basil's is staffed by the Basilian Salvatorian Order, founded in Lebanon in 1684 and probably the only international religious community of the Catholic Church in America.

Father Shashaty is a priest of Latin Rite with baccalaureate degrees in the Byzantine Rite and will be the first American superior of St. Basil's Seminary.

Parishioners and friends honored Father Shashaty Sunday, Sept. 11 between 2 and 5 p.m. at St. Nicholas Church hall on Leo and Remington Sts.
