Walsh's Air Blitz Ties McQuaid

By MARK GREISBERGER
McQuaid Jesuit High saw a 13-point halftime lead vanish under the sharpshooting attack of quarterback John Shine last Saturday as Bishop Walsh of Ocean rallied for a 20-20 tie in a game played at McQuaid.

The Knights (1-2-1) will try again to gain the 500 mark this Saturday when they inaugurate a new rivalry in a home game against Oswego High.

Against Walsh, McQuaid struck quickly, taking the opening kickoff and marching 70 yards in 7 plays. Fullback Mike Millner capped the drive by bursting over right tackle and outracing the secondary for the final 35 yards. Millner's plunge for the PAT was stopped short.

Both teams were unable to move until late in the second period when suddenly McQuaid halfback Tom Mulvaney skirted left end and broke free on a 44-yard touchdown romp. Millner's plunge made it 13-0 at the half, which ended right after an endzone interception by Steve Hromjak had halted a Walsh threat.

The second half opened with Walsh driving 55 yards in 8 plays for its first score. Shine's passing carried the team to the McQuaid 5 and halfback Jim Metzler finally dove over from one yard out. McQuaid end Boz Stira busted through to cancel out the PAT kick attempt.

McQuaid received a big break later in the quarter when a bid center on a last down kick situation gave the Knights the ball on Walsh's 2-yard line. Halfback Bernie Ashley plunged for the TD and Millner added the point for a still-formidable 20-6 lead.

Standouts for McQuaid were Walsh driving 107 yards in 17 carries as well as Pat Quinlan and Dan Iles on defense and Hromjak with his all-around work, which included a 65-yard kick. For Walsh, Shine's statistics tell the story: 17 for 28 on passing and 2 touchdowns. The Anastasia brothers, Bob and Jim, led the hard-charging Walsh defense that effectively bottled up McQuaid in the second half.

Second-year coach Vito Marcollo, himself an outstanding player locally, has taken eleven letters from last year's 1-13 team, added a few newcomers, and come up with a tight defense and a consistent scoring attack. Leading the way has been German exchange student Mike Hofmann, who scored both goals in the big win over Jeff.

The Knights opened their season with a 2-1 conquest of Charlotte, lost to Jeff, 5-2 (Ted Marshall 22, then blanked Madison 6-0, on co-captain Terry McMahon's first shutout in the goal. Injuries hurt them in consecutive losses to Fairport and Rush-Henrietta, but co-captain Hofmann returned to spark them against Jefferson, which entered the game with an 8-0 record.

Overall, Hofmann leads the scoring with 7 goals, while Ed Donohue, Bill Orrett, and Bo Hanford have 2 apiece. Dan Donohue, Mark Greisberger, Ed Murrer, and George Carey have been stalwarts on defense, and McMahon has limited the opposition to 2 goals per game.

Next two games for the Knights will be against a tough Bishop Kearney squad next Monday and undefeated Franklin on Tuesday.

Campus Dateline

Science Seminar

Brother Hugh Haggerty, C.S.C., chairman of the science department at Cardinal Mooney, is conducting a science seminar every Saturday morning.

Two students from each of the elementary schools in the area have been invited to participate. The atom, cell theory, magnetic forces, basic electricity and the fundamentals of radio are among the subjects to be explored. Classes will consist of laboratory work as well as lectures.

Nazareth Course

To prepare students for the full development of the human person Nazareth Academy has introduced a course in humanities this year.

The course, open to juniors and seniors, offers instruction in art, music, and literature. Sister Mural, the general coordinator of the course, reports that the students will make use of slides, films, and records, as well as plan field trips.

Kearney Wins Over East H.

Bishop Kearney scored four goals in the opening period against East and held on for a 5-2 win, Oct. 3.

Leading the Kings to victory was John Numetko who scored 2 goals and had 3 assists. Other goals were scored by Dan Gillen, Chuck Callahan, and George Weiss.

The Kings played an away game against Greece Olympia who has not been scored on in the league games. Greece Olympia won 1-0 on a play from Dan Armstrong to Dave Parks.

Appointments

The editors of the major Aquinas publications have been announced. Chris Gratton has been named editor-in-chief of the school's newspaper, the Maroon and White. Skip Brown, Steve Kinsky, and Dave Paris are the editors of the paper's various pages.

Jim LaDonna, a senior, has assumed his duties as editor of the school yearbook, the Arête.

DeSales 11 Squeezes By Penn Yan

By ROBERT PRESTON

Mike Roulan, quarterback at De Sales, led the Saints' attack against the Penn Yan Mustangs on Saturday afternoon, October 1. Roulan, who is considered by some to be the finest quarterback in DeSales' history, called some outstanding plays which when combined with team efforts helped to overpower the Mustangs 11-4-12.

The Saints' plan for the afternoon was to keep the ball on the ground which led to 149 yards of rushing. Penn Yan's ground game was halted by the efforts of Roulan, Nick Mascari and Cosie Costa, while their futile attempts gathered only 12 yards on the ground.

Midway through the first period, after an exchange of punts, the Saints took over on their own 12 yard line and moved the ball up to the 18. After a fumble by DeSales and a six yard penalty against Penn Yan, Roulan intercepted on the 29, raced by a throng of Mustangs and scored the first touchdown of the day. The extra point was good and put the Saints ahead 7-0. Just before the end of the first half, approximately 900 football fans witnessed the Saints' second touchdown when Roulan passed to Jim Brennan in the left flat.

Overall, Hofmann leads the scoring with 7 goals, while Ed Donohue, Bill Orrett, and Bo Hanford have 2 apiece. Dan Donohue, Mark Greisberger, Ed Murrer, and George Carey have been stalwarts on defense, and McMahon has limited the opposition to 2 goals per game.

Next two games for the Knights will be against a tough Bishop Kearney squad next Monday and undefeated Franklin on Tuesday.

Aquinas co-captain Paul Millewich will lead the undefeated Irish eleven against Bishop Kearney High School this Sunday. Game time at the Aquinas stadium is 2 p.m.

Aquinas Stuns Mooney, 42-20

By KEVIN DONOVAN

Undefeated Aquinas trounced Cardinal Mooney in football, 42-20, and unbelievable Don Hall turned in another spectacular performance for the Irish before 6,107 fans in sunsoaked Aquinas Stadium last Sunday.

Hall, 151-pound Aquinas halfback, sprinted for three touchdowns as he totaled 228 yards in 18 carries.

THE LITTLE IRISH senior scored the first quarter's only touchdown when he went around end from the two. John Basile converted for the PAT successfully, as he was to do for the next five Aquinas scores.

Cardinal Mooney opened the score early in the second quarter as Dick Parker swept around left end for 8 yards. Dick Musciow kicked the point after.

John Waffle, Cardinal Mooney's defensive back, stopped Aquinas' ensuing drive with an interception. Then Jim Harrington and Dick Musciow took turns running through the Aquinas line, taking the football to the one. Parker took it over giving the Cardinals a 14-7 lead which stood for the rest of the half.

In the third quarter an Irish blitzkrieg took place. In the space of the twelve minute period the Aquinas backfield crunched out 229 yards on the ground in 12 scrimmage plays as they scored four touchdowns.

In the half's second play, none other than Don Hall, sprinted past the secondary for a 57 yard touchdown run.

Sixteen seconds later Aquinas recovered a Mooney fumble. The Irish moved the ball to the nine when the Irish's fullback co-captain, Fred Rechio, scored.

The Cardinals, led by quarterback Harrington, put themselves right back into the football game when a 13-yard Harrington to Earl Lenhard pass closed the gap to 21-20.

However, the Irish bombardment had not ceased. A little over a minute and a half later, Don Hall topped a superb game performance when he raced 52 yards for his third touchdown of the day and his eleventh of the season.

The fourth touchdown of the quarter came when 177-pound Aquinas junior Rich D'Ettore rambled untouched for 45 yards.

Aquinas completely dominated the fourth quarter with a ball-control running game. Late in the period, D'Ettore went over from the six for the final score of the game.

Aquinas, with a record of 4-0, will meet Bishop Kearney at Aquinas Stadium next Sunday at 2 p.m. in a "must" game for Little Irish players and fans.

Cardinal Mooney, now 2-2, will travel to the Buffalo area to battle DeSales of Lockport next Saturday.

Installation Dinner

Erie Holds Kings Scoreless

Erie's Cathedral Prep remained in first place in that city's high school league by defeating the Bishop Kearney Kings 50-0 in a game played at Aquinas Stadium, Saturday afternoon.

The Prep Ramblers showed their champion strength by taking a commanding 22-0 lead in the first half. The second half was no help for Kearney as Prep continued their tough running game scoring on runs of ten and five yards. Prep quarterbacks threw for two touchdowns while their tough defense scored on a pass intercepted by John Fetzner.

Erie Prep also scored a safety because of a bad pass from center which flew over the B.K. punter's head and into the end zone.
