

Peanuts

(Continued from Page 1)
tion" in understanding the modern-day parables to be found in the works of modern-day artists.

In a well-documented tour through the world of "Peanuts" he offers sample perceptions, ranging from a chapter titled "The Wages of Sin is 'Aaugh!'" to one in which he compares the dog Snoopy to the Hound of Heaven.

SOME SAMPLE observations given by Short:

● On Original Sin: In one strip, Linus marvels at his hands, exulting that these are the hands that may one day accomplish great things: build might bridges, heal the sick, hit a home run, write soul stirring novels, change the course of destiny. His sister Lucy takes a look at Linus' hands and says only, "They've got jelly on them."

● The Spirit Is Willing, But... Charlie Brown tells Lucy that "all it would take to make me happy is to have someone say he likes me." Lucy replies, "I don't think that's asking too much... I really don't." Lines of dialogue like that go back and forth between Charlie Brown and Lucy for several panels; then, when Charlie Brown expectantly awaits Lucy's kind words, she looks at him and sighs: "I can't do it."

● The Hound of Heaven: Linus' security blanket—a symbol for man's false gods—is constantly being yanked away by Snoopy, who claims he uses his nose "to smell out faults not immediately discernible to the eye."

Far-fetched? "If the Church fails to use the divine imagination given to it to see the unseen, and see 'sermons in stone and good in everything,' to see 'that all that passes to corruption is a parable,' as Karl Barth has put it, it will constantly be embarrassed by a world capable of far more imagination than the Church itself," replies Short.

And as if to support those who see theological and spiritual dimensions behind the comic shell of "Peanuts," plans have been announced for the first feature-length movie starring Charlie Brown. Its title—inspired by the drama on St. Thomas More—will be: "A Boy for All Seasons." (Catholic Press Features)

SALE! FORMAN'S OWN BARBARA LEE STOCKINGS

6 pairs 6.00
regularly 1.35 pr.

Our annual fall sale of these beautiful Barbara Lee stockings. Time to discover the fashion advantages of having a whole wardrobe, the right weights, the right colors, to choose from. It's easy and inexpensive right now at Forman's. Seamless and full fashioned styles; beige and taupe. Phone orders call 325-1800.

- Seamless:
- Dress sheer with heel and toe
  - Micro Mesh with heel and toe
  - Demi-toe
  - Walking sheer

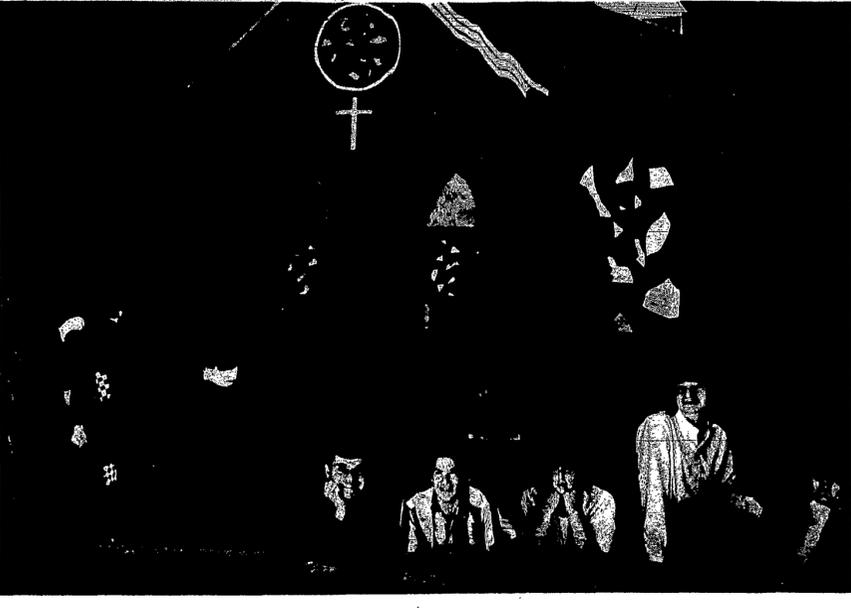

- Full fashion:
- Dress sheer
  - Walking sheer

Added value: Stretch demi-toe stockings of A-gilora or Cantrece, regularly 1.65 pr. 3 prs. 3.90

Stocking Collections, Street Floor, Midtown and at Culver-Ridge.

B. FORMAN CO.

Forman's Midtown open Tuesday and Thursday until 9 • Culver-Ridge Monday thru Friday until 9 • Brighton Thursday and Friday until 9.

The Gospels by Teenagers

Here's a new way to study the Gospels. Put on a display—not really a Gospel display but one that translates Gospel themes into everyday life.

youngsters of year-old Holy Spirit parish in Penfield. The parish is using Mercy High School auditorium for Sunday Mass while their church is being built.

the parish includes Gary Har-garther, David Hoysic, Laurie Vella, Georgina Ratkovic and Shirley Wrublewski. Their first presentation was held recently.

play was taken from a short story by O. Henry that concerns a derelict who bummed his way through the summer months and then devised ways to get arrested so that he could spend the winter months in a warm jail.

New Parish

No Church or Boundaries

Oklahoma City — (NC) — A parish without territorial boundaries or property has been established in the diocese of Oklahoma City and Tulsa.

City. But members will be accepted from any area, according to Paul F. Sprehe, a spokesman for the group which sought Bishop Reed's permission for the experiment.

discussions, committee reports and discussions of Catholic action.

As he passed a church, he saw the warm glow of the stained-glass windows and heard the soft, beautiful choir music. He stopped and contemplated his life. He was ashamed of himself. He had thoughts of his boyhood days. These were good thoughts... decent thoughts.

Memorial Rite Held for Slain Clergyman

New York — (RNS)—About 600 friends, co-workers and associates of Dr. Robert W. Spike attended a simple, moving service in Riverside church here to honor the memory of the clergyman and prominent civil rights leader slain in Columbus, Ohio, on Oct. 17.

It will be created largely from membership of existing parishes in northwest Oklahoma

It was emphasized by the group that it has no plans to incur debt for a permanent structure of its own. Instead, it plans to use only rental property.

Just at that moment, a policeman grabbed the derelict by the shoulder and arrested him for loitering! Moral—do what's right before it's too late!

Sponsored by the National Council of Churches, which Dr. Spike served as the first director of the Commission on Religion and Race, the service was attended by several government officials and leaders of Roman Catholic, Jewish and secular civil rights groups as well as top NCC Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox figures.

Emphasizing Dr. Spike's conviction that the church must play a vital role in the world, Dr. Douglass said that at one of their last conversations — during the Church and Society conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last Summer — there was "an exhilaration about Bob."

More such Gospel displays are planned for the near future.

The late United Church of Christ clergyman's accomplishments in social action areas, particularly the civil rights struggle, were underscored throughout the service and highlighted in a eulogy offered by Dr. Truman B. Douglass of New York, executive vice-president of the United Church's Board for Homeland Ministries.

Emphasizing Dr. Spike's conviction that the church must play a vital role in the world, Dr. Douglass said that at one of their last conversations — during the Church and Society conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last Summer — there was "an exhilaration about Bob."

More such Gospel displays are planned for the near future.

Jews Honor Belgian Priest

Jerusalem — (RNS) — A Cypress tree was planted on a memorial mountain near Jerusalem in honor of a Belgian Roman Catholic priest who saved many Jews, predominantly children, from falling into the hands of the Nazis during World War II.

Emphasizing Dr. Spike's conviction that the church must play a vital role in the world, Dr. Douglass said that at one of their last conversations — during the Church and Society conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last Summer — there was "an exhilaration about Bob."

More such Gospel displays are planned for the near future.

Msgr. Andre Meunier, in Israel as the guest of the Israel-Belgium Friendship Association, was also given a medal as a "Just of the Nations" by the Yadashem Holocaust Memorial Foundation.

Emphasizing Dr. Spike's conviction that the church must play a vital role in the world, Dr. Douglass said that at one of their last conversations — during the Church and Society conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last Summer — there was "an exhilaration about Bob."

More such Gospel displays are planned for the near future.

In acknowledging the tributes paid him, Msgr. Meunier, who is now vicar general of the Liege diocese, stressed he had only tried to do his Christian duty and felt he had not done enough.

Emphasizing Dr. Spike's conviction that the church must play a vital role in the world, Dr. Douglass said that at one of their last conversations — during the Church and Society conference in Geneva, Switzerland, last Summer — there was "an exhilaration about Bob."

More such Gospel displays are planned for the near future.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

JAMES A. FARLEY
515 Madison Avenue
New York, N.Y.

October 25, 1966

Dear Friend:

In this rather confused political year in which many traditional loyalties have been shattered, there is one candidate as to whom there can be no confusion or doubt - New York State Comptroller Arthur Levitt.

The Brooklyn Tablet summarized the feelings of all New Yorkers when they editorialized, "Gratitude, appreciation and honor are due Arthur Levitt for his devotion to his duty as a member of the Board of Education, a devotion which he had previously given to his country."

I strongly feel that all of us should vigorously support this outstanding human being who has served as the people's independent auditor in both Republican and Democratic administrations since 1954.

Sincerely,
James A. Farley

Wha

(Continued from Page 1)
through his episcopal con-tion.

The principles thus esta-ed, there was need to in-their application.

There had been before Council a schema entitled Bishops and the Governi Dioceses. Its bearing, eve sense, was uncertain, unt dogmatic consideration o role of bishops was clai
This having been achiev the third session with adoption of the Constituti
the Church, discussion
made simpler for a subst
ly re-written document, which were added ele
from a discarded schema Care of Souls — of three ters describing the functio the modes of action of a olic bishop amid, as the c declares, "the condition human association which brought about a new ord things in our times."

Chapter I of the decree, Relationship of Bishops to Universal Church, advert
plicity to the Synod of o ps instituted by Paul VI, beginning of the presen sion. It envisages this
"Senate of the Church" permanent manifestation principle of collegiality;
that since this body "sh
acting in the name of th the Catholic episcopate, i at the same time show t
the bishops in hierarchica munio partake of the autude for the universal Ch

This collective respons it is noted, should urge to interest actively their ful in the worldwide ent of evangelization, of areas where Church is and where the priests ar
cut. It inculcates a sp solidarity in the univers copate.

The Roman Curia is ac-edged as the ensemble of cies of the Pope perf
"their duties in his nam with his authority for the of the churches and in th ice of the sacred pastors decree, however, does no
late to express the desir these departments of the See "be reorganized and adapted to the needs
times, regions, and rites
ally as regards their m name, competence and p method of procedure, a as the coordination of among them," a reorga announced by Pope Pau

Marria At Cal

Washington — (R
members of the papal scheduled to address
disciplinary symposiu
"Christian Marriage in t
of Vatican Council II";
the Catholic Universi America, here, Nov. 8-10.

The Vatican official is Henri de Riedmatten, a can priest from Geneva, land, who is executive tary of the papal com

Women to I Clergy Adv

West Paterson — (NC)—
Lawrence B. Casey of P. said here he expects wo play a vital role in the the diocese.

Speaking at the annuvention of the Paterson esna Council of Catholi-on, he said women "h called upon to act on school boards and d
school boards, the CCD, of Mary, and projects at the general communit fare."

The bishop said it v intention to name a to the board of directors new Paterson diocesan the Beacon, which will publishing in January.

He cautioned the against a spirit of "iisolationism" and "dor attitudes toward such problems as public hou
literacy, urban renewal cial injustice.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

PROGR

SERV

PERFORM