A Notice in the 'Sticks' of Card Party

Father Bernard Kuchman, pastor of St. Januarius Church, Naples, and St. Matthias Church, Atlanta, asked the Courier to give "some space" to the following notice, stating that "we in the 'sticks' are as important to the Courier as the city parishes."

Assuring him we are in full agreement with his thesis, we therefore report:

The St. Januarius fall social and card party will be held in the parish hall Saturday evening, Dec. 3. Chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Riesenberger and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shepherd assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Euclid St. Pierre, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sturdevant and Julia Wixom.

Father Kuchman added his hope that there is "a fine turnout to benefit our small parishes."

Julia Enright Funeral Mass

Hornell — Funeral Mass for Mrs. Julia Costello Enright, a founder of St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing was offered in St. Ignatius Loyola Church, Thursday, Nov. 17.

Mrs. Enright died Nov. 14, 1966 in St. James Mercy Hospital, Hornell.

A resident of 8 Crosby St., she was a native of Genesee and was graduated from St. Mary's Hospital School of Nursing, Rochester. She came to Hornell in 1912 to found the school which she headed for several years.

Surviving are her husband, John Enright at home; one sister, Mrs. Mary Wagner and a brother, William Costello, both of Genesee.

Burial was in St. Ann's Cemetery, Hornell. Arrangements by Curry's Funeral Home.

From that nice New England family, Prince: a true meat sauce in a 16 ounce jar.
