St. Ann's Holds Open House

St. Ann's School, Hornell was filled with parents, relatives and friends Dec. 4 for the annual holiday open house held in connection with a pre-Christmas bazaar sponsored by the Mother's Club of the school.

Visitors were welcomed by Father James C. Lane, pastor and Sister Mary Irma, school principal.

In each classroom the pupils' work was displayed in colorful individual folders. Teachers were on hand to explain the curriculum and educational materials used in the classrooms.

Murals, a Nativity scene, mobiles, and life-size Magi figures created by the pupils of the various grades carried out the holiday theme.

Cancer Society Names Director

Mrs. John Maloney Jr., 5 Wayside Circle, Pittsford, was recently named executive director of the Monroe County Unit of the American Cancer Society, according to William W. Pinkel, executive vice president of the Society's New York State Division.

Mrs. Maloney, who has been a field representative of the Division since 1964, succeeds Robert E. Conroy, who has been named Crusade Director for the New York State Division.

Mrs. Maloney has been associated with the New York State Division of the American Cancer Society since 1948. In 1960 she became director of public education and service of the Division.

Prince, that nice New England family found this recipe in Rome.

Prince Marinara Sauce — traditionally Italian. Bursting with rich plum tomatoes. Perfect with Prince spaghetti.

THE GIFT THAT SAYS "I LOVE YOU"

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

WHAT YOU DO FOR OTHERS YOU DO FOR HIM

Christmas is Christ's Birthday. To show Him you love Him, sacrifice something for the poor. In Chetipuzha, India, hundreds of young Christians are being Christ all over again—no room for them at the Dor Bosco Catechetical Institute. With over 2,000 boys and girls wanting to learn about Christ, hundreds of them have to sit down out-of-doors for class. Difficult? Rain and wind make these classes almost impossible. Won't you bring them in for Christmas? Father Thomas Felix writes, "... will someone open his heart? $2,850 will build the desperately needed classrooms." ... In Jordan, not far from Bethlehem, infants in makeshift Bedouin tents shiver in their sleep on the desert sand. $8 will buy four blankets. ... Refugee families in miserable camps can be kept in milk, cheese, flour, for only $10 a month. Remind us, if you feed a family for a month, to send you an Olive Wood Rosary as our thank-you. ... Christ's Birthday is just two weeks away. Your gift to the missions says to Him, "I love You." ... What are "the missions"? They are people, not placenames. They are lepers, cancer sufferers, the blind, the aged, foundlings, homeless refugees. They are the people for whom Christ became an infant, and was crucified. What you do for the hungry, the shivering, the abandoned, He said, you do for Him. ... How to celebrate Christ's Birthday? Do something for the poor. We'll send your gifts (tax deductible in the U. S., of course) to the Holy Father. He'll use them exactly as you request.

MISSION GIFT CHECK LIST

$10,000 will build a parish "plant" complete (church, school, rectory, convent) somewhere overseas. Name it for your favorite saint, in your loved ones' memory.

A church can be built for $3,800, a school for $3,200. The Bishop in charge will write to you.

The Holy Father uses stringless gifts in any amount ($5,000, $1,500, $500, $100, $50, $25, $10, $5, $2) where they're needed most.

It costs only $8.50 a month ($100 a year) to train a native priest. For $12.50 a month ($150 a year) you can train a native Sister. Payments at your convenience, of course.
