Grouped around dedication plaque with Father Haffey are Sister Ethe Iburge, his sister from Toronto; Hugh Rundle, a Fisher student, a nephew and Alexander McKee of St. Catherine's, Ont., also a nephew.

Father Haffey and a portion of the crowd of hundreds who attended the Haffey Hall Dedication Honors Noted Basilian

Shepherd of the Rochester Dio cese, Bishop Kearney officiated last Sunday at the formal dedication of Haffey Hall, the new cestor of the Christian Culture rector of the Christian Culture As executive director of St. signing the coat of arms of the Rochester Diocese.

Limits Thai public act as the School at 1017 Aug. 29, 1847. The was Bishop (then Mole and Stadium, or Signor) Sheen, who succeeds ing on the East Avenue campus. Bishop Kearney as Ordinary of the Rochester Diocese.

Club, and was founder and director of St. signing the coat of arms of the Signor Sheen, who succeeds ing on the East Avenue campus. Bishop Kearney as Ordinary of the Rochester Diocese.

Club, and was founder and director of the Christian Culture As executive director of St. signing the coat of arms of the Signor Sheen, who succeeds ing on the East Avenue campus. As executive director of St. signor Sheen, who succeeds ing on the East Avenue campus. As executive director of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing the coat of arms of the School Colors (cardinal red and gold) and in designing Fisher College.

The new student residence is named in honor of Father Hugh J. Haffey, C.S.B., former Aquinas Institute vice principal and fst executive director of St. John Fisher College.

at Oak Hill Country Club prior tegic Air Command headquarto the midafternoon dedication ceremonies, which took place in the lounge of the new building. Hundreds of Fisher students as well as members of the Board of Regents, adminstration, and faculty attended the other Fisher campus buildings dedication. Haffey Hall and were open for public inspection.

Father Haffey, a native of St. Michael's College, Toronto, taught English and speech at Aquinas for 10 years. It was he who selected and purchased the original 72 acres to be used for the future Fisher campus 28, 1916, in Rochester. He at numerous assignments in the on behalf of the Basilian Fa-tended Holy Cross Grammar United States.

200-man dormitory at St. John Lecture Sexies in Rochester. John Fisher from 1947 to 1949 college. He is now on the fac-Among the prominent speakers Father Haffey helped conduct ulty of the University of St. he brought to Rochester at that the first fund drive to build the Thomas, Houston, Tex.

In his final public act as there Corporation Aug. 29, 1947. time was Bishop (then Mon-1 Kearney Administration Build-

Chaplain Albert Assigned To SAC

Chaplain (Colonel) John F. Albert, Alaskan Com-Bishop Kearney and Father mand chaplain and priest of the Rochester Diocese, will Haffey were feted at a luncheon be reassigned this month as command chaplain at Stra-School, St. Andrew's and St. ters near Omaha, Neb.

Bernard's Seminaries. Father Numerous improvements have Albert was ordained June 7. been made in the Alaskan Com. 1941, at Sacred Heart Cathemand Chaplains' Program dur dral and became assistant pasing Chaplain Albert's tenure. | tor of St. Mary's Church in Corning, New York.

Perhaps the most significant He was commissioned in the contribution to the program is U.S. Army Chaplain Corps in the annual religious art and March, 1945, and served in the photography contest. The con-Philippine Islands until June. test fosters competition among 1948. Colonel Albert's travels artists and photographers from Welland, Ont., and a graduate of both remote sites and large since entering military service military installations and af have been extensive, including fords a display opportunity for such places as Ramey Air Force serious hobbyists and amateurs. Base, Puerto Rico; Lakenheath

Air Force Base, England; Naha Father Albert was born March Air Force Base, Okinawa; and

FATHER ALBERT

Aquinas Boasts Super-Salesman

Gregory Charles Pritchard, 17, a senior at Aquinas Institute, has an auspicious title: The most successful teen-age salesman in his school — and probably in the

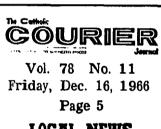

This is neither a press agent's ner club" sales campaign at the Dewey Avenue school. label nor a promoter's wish, but a fact. It was made official

For several years the Mothat the close of the recent "din-ers' Club of Aquinas, under the direction of its moderator, Father Michael Biondi, have sold dinner-club books for the express purpose of raising money for a new faculty residence. Presently, the Basilian Fathers who staff Aquinas Institute live in the old Nazareth College building at 402 Augustine St. Greg became interested in helping the fund-raising project > sold 90 books, valued at $450. (Continued on Page 6)

LOCAL NEWS SECTION

For its last official time - Bishop Kearney's hand lifts a crucifix to its place in Haffey Hall at St. John

Mercy Nuns' Mission

Friendship at a Storefront

By MONICA REEVES

"Mt. Carmel Home Visitation Unit" and "Joseph Avenue but often difficult to achieve Hanover Project and the Chat-inner-city of Rochester. As Sis- 4 through 13, invade the build-

The Storefront's activities are Storefront" are two rather long aimed at the youngsters of the names for a basically simple, area, many of whom live in the ham Gardens complex.

ter Mary Concepta, of the Store-ing on Joseph Avenue that the front quickly and empatically Sisters of Mercy have equipped stitute the Storefront's full-fon the upswing, with a total of Saturdays. Also, suburban par-290 youngster officially on the books, in contrast to the 20 home for a day, and both the that were enrolled at the center's start 4 years ago.

munity had no formal plans, no It is through the children set pattern to follow. They held that contact is made with the worked from there.

a project, not a handout, is not love. There are sewing classes one-way sort of affair at all.

"This is the idea—it is a group. On Thursdays Sister sharing; a neighborhood sort of thing," adds Sister Mary Claude, ing class.

Who, with Sister Concepta, con
There are sewing classes who to the center is love. There are sewing classes who dents, and a boys' clude Mercy High School students, a Better Community (ABC). As dents, two of whom come in a result, neighborhood ties are through through through through in the becomes aware that the Sisters who, with Sister Concepta, con-

At the onset, the Mercy Com

It is the Sisters of Mercy who Monday through Thursday af-are forming two-way friendships ternoons, from 3:30 to 5, an to combat the curse of the average of 100 youngsters, ages innercity of Rechester As Sig. 4 through 12 invade the huild. It is through these visits that Volunteers at the Storefront, people to take advantage of the points out, this friendship is not with toys and a great deal of in addition to Sisters of Mercy programs established for them, a project, not a handout, is not love. There are sewing classes who come every afternoon, in such as FIGHT and Action for

> Although the problems of the Mt. Carmel parishioners are of different sort, helping people to help them selves still seems to be the general idea.

Sistem Mary Regis, who heads the Home Visitation Unit, works clessly with Sister Mary Fidelis, principal of Mt. Carmel on principal of Mt. Carmel on Omtario Street, since a child's behavior in the classroom situation is often indicative of his home life. With the assistance of a social worker and psychologist provided for by Federal Add Sister Regis attempts to A.id, Sister Regis attempts to umcover the home situation which literally begs for help. Space to eat and sleep, much less to study is at a premium. And a home with no heat, poor plumbing facilities and no hot water, is hardly conducive to study.

Since those of the area are predominantly of Puerto Rican descent, language barriers and becoming accustomed to the fast pace of the American way of life, constitutes the basis for many of the problems encountered by these people. Sister Regis and her crew are available to translate and provide framportation to welfare of transportation to welfare of fices, clinics and during emer-

Although Sister Regis is wary of the handout sort of situation, she and her coworkers have given food and clothing to tide those over who need help until they can become self-sustaining.

Along the lines of volunteers, students of St. Joseph's parish in Penfield, Mercy High stu-Clents, and two young people from the Neighborhood Youth Corp help out.

fiesta meal afterwards, helps to create a real neighborhood Neighborhood spirit seems to be very much a party of the Sisters of Mercy Apostolate in the InnerCity of Rochester as the Imner-City of Rochester as they themselves become real meighbors, and friends.

Happy Holiday Season

FOR YOUR LISTENING PLEASURE

IN OUR

A Mass in Spanish on Sunof native instruments and a COCKTAIL LOUNGE SUN. - - TUES. WED. - - THURS. EVENING FROM

Plan to Join Us For A Holiday Evening Of Fun & Enjoyment with Joe Cady's Orchestra and the Russ Rizzo Trio

Kitchen Open 'til 12:30 a.m. Serving A Complete Menu

"The House of Good Food"

2851 West Henrietta Road 473-3891

Closed Mondays

FOR YOUR DINING DANCING PLEASURE 7 PIECE ORCHESTRA NITELY

Sister Mary Concepta and friends.