McQuaid Debate Victory

McQuaid Jesuit High's debaters and orators have returned victorious from the annual Hendrick Hudson Debate Tournament in Montrose, N.Y. on Dec. 9 and 10.

Seniors Joseph Combs and Kevin Hennessy won all 6 of their debates in the switch-side competition to emerge as the top team among the 88 teams assembled from 5 states. The pair completed a rare sweep by also taking 1-2 in the best speaker ratings from among 138 individual entries.

A trophy for the best upstate squad also went to McQuaid when its other team, composed of juniors James Welch and Richard Koeley, compiled a 2-2 record to go with the seniors' unbeaten slate.

A pair of second-place trophies came back to Rochester for oratorical work by sophomore William Strohmeier and senior John Redman in the same tournament.

On Dec. 8 four McQuaid juniors—Thomas Kostizak, Patrick Hanahan, Leo Pudup and John Pelkey—posted a 7-1 mark to capture second place at the Bishop Gibbons Debate Tournament in Tonawanda.

Debate Tournament

Aquinas Institute's debating squad captured first place in the Genesee State College Debate Tournament last weekend. The varsity team of Gerry Aman, George DeRoller, Edward Sterb and Kevin Donovan compiled a 5-1 record to win the fourteen school competition.

The senior team of Streb and Donovan were also cited as the best negative team at the tournament.

Mooney NHS

Twenty Cardinal Mooney seniors were honored Tuesday, Dec. 13, at the induction of the Brother Ephrem Chapter of the National Honor Society. Mr. Myron White, principal of neighboring Greece Olympia, guest speaker, stressed the importance of the organization in setting the scholastic tone of the school.

Meeting the requirements of scholarship, leadership, service and character are Kathleen Bauman, Melaine Bogoshian, Thomas Bringley, Steven Cotton, Steven Conover, Linda Garback, Cheryl Gilbert, James Goral, Karl Heuer, Charlene Inzana, Mark Kesseling, Janice Keymel, James Langbein, Earl Lenhard, Evelyn Lombard, Maureen Mangan, David Pantalone, Larry Reinhardt, Wayne Shierli and Mary Schlachter.

Students and their parents were feted at a tea held in the library after the ceremony.

HAPPY CHRISTMAS? BUILD A CHURCH

THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH

IN INDIA NEW CATHOLICS GATHER STONES

In Thekku Thode, south India, Midnight Mass will be in the open air. Three months ago the tiny, thatched-roof parish church collapsed. . . . "This whole village will ring joyfully with carols if I can announce at Christmas we'll build our church," Father George Kuttilyl reports. "We are penniless, yes, but we still have our health. For weeks now my people, all of them new converts, have been gathering stones evenings after work. The church will cost only $3,100 (the price of the building materials) since we'll build it ourselves, with our own hands, to save the cost of labor." . . . These new Catholics are Catholics to be proud of. They are our hope in India. . . . Share something with them in time for Christmas? We'll send Father George immediately your gifts (tax-deductible in the U.S.A.) in any amount—$100, $75, $50, $25, $10, $5, $2. They'll make the village ring. . . . You may name the church for your favorite saint, put a plaque at the entrance in memory of your loved ones. If you build it all by yourself ($3,100), Christmas is the time to share God's blessings. Share them and your heart will ring!

WHY NOT HAVE A SHARE?

To share this year in the Masses, hardships and good works of our Bishops, priests and Sisters overseas, enroll yourself now (as well as your children, nephews, nieces and friends) in this Association. We'll send them a certificate. . . . The dues are used for the poor. Family membership: $100 for life, $10 for a year. One person's membership $25 for life, $2 a year.

NEW IDEA FOR '67

Our legal title is CATHOLIC NEAR EAST WELFARE ASSOCIATION. Our mission priests will offer promptly the Masses you request, build churches, schools, convents, clinics, under the Holy Father's direction. Requests to be used "where needed most" take care of mission emergencies.

Mother de La Chapelle Rites at Mount Kisco

Mother Therese de La Chappelle of the Religious of the Cenacle died Dec. 8, 1966, at the Cenacle Retreat House, Mount Kisco, N.Y., after a long illness. She was 94 years old.

Mother was born in Charmoz, near Lyons, France. She came to America in 1897, as a very young religious, and resided in the St. Regis Cenacle in New York City. This latter Cenacle was founded in 1892, the first in the United States.

Mother made her perpetual vows in 1904, and almost immediately assumed a leading role in the growth of the Cenacle retreat movement.

She was Mistress of Novices for twenty years, and was relieved of this responsibility to assume the task of Vicar-Provincial, in charge of all Cenacle Retreat Houses in the U.S.A.

Several houses were established during her vicariate, among them the novitiate house at Lake Ronkonkoma, Long Island, and the retreat houses at St. Louis, Warrenville and Milwaukee.

After Mother de La Chapelle's golden jubilee of vows in 1948, she became superior of the Ronkonkoma house. She retired from this position in 1950.

She is survived by a nephew, Richard de La Chapelle of New York City, and two nieces, Mrs. Jacques Cornet of Tenafly, N.J., and Mrs. John Fulchiron of Closter, N.J.

Speech Awards at Aquinas

Three Catholic boys from the area's elementary schools will talk their way to over $2,800 worth of scholarships to Aquinas Institute next Sunday, Dec. 18.

As previously announced, Aquinas Institute has broadened its scholarship program to include grants to outstanding boys who show proficiency in public speaking.

"The purpose of the competition," says Aquinas principal Father Leon Hart, C.S.B., "is in keeping with the school's desire to further the cause of developing articulate Catholic leadership among our students. It is of vital concern to the people of Rochester that our youth develop their talents and abilities to the fullest extent," he contends.

The awards include one full, four-year scholarship valued at $1,440 and two partial grants, valued at $720 each. All contestants receive citations according to achievement. In addition, the boy winning the full scholarship will receive a king-size trophy with his name engraved, to be kept in his school until the annual competition the following year. He will also receive a plaque signifying his achievement.

To be eligible for the scholarships, a boy must be in attendance at an approved elementary school and must be graduated by the end of the current school year. The principals of over 30 schools have submitted names of boys who will represent their schools.

By FATHER PETER SHEEHAN, C.S.B.

This is the final article in a series devoted to church music education. Father Sheehan, of St. Fisher College, has served as editor of the series and edited the first article. He is a member of the diocesan music commission, ex-chairman of the 1967 Rock Beach Festival, and a director of the Rochester Oratorio Society. The line drawings which illustrate the articles of the series are the work of John C. Han, a member of St. Patrick, Pittsford.

When the members of a diocesan music commission conceived the project of publishing six articles in Courier Journal, they intended to devote the final article to the future of church music viewed by music educators. Factors, however, now necessary to modify the scope of this article were introduced. First, the series have, to some degree, already treated the problem of musical education. Secondly, a most important feature of the nation's liturgists and church music was held recently in New York City to discuss the future of liturgy and music.

The conference in New York City, sponsored jointly by the U.S. Liturgical Conference and the Church Music Association of America, was entitled Music and Discord: An Forum on Church Music.

It can be said of the conference that it was a "fair" one. "Everyone who should be here" — Archbishop Hallinan of Atlanta, newly elected chairman of the U.S. Liturgical Commission, and other prominent figures in the field of church music, were present. The Diocese of Rochester, represented by Father A. Ehmman and the presiding bishop, both members of the Liturgical Commission, were also present. The Diocese of Rochester, represented by Father A. High Mass: Now in Eng

London—(NC)—The of England and Wales announced that the Mass be sung in the vernacular recommended that the selected be easily adaptable full congregational participation.

Giving pastors discretion to decide which parts of the Mass are to be sung, and allowing the use of some otherwise vernacular Masses, the bishops said that the Ordinary must approve the Masses from the office used in sung Masses. They also requested that the tradition of the Latin Mass not be lost.
