Science Research Team

Science-minded students at DeSales High School, Geneva, who were able to give an hour and a half weekly after classes to scientific research were honored on Dec. 13 by an address given by Dr. Robert Shallenberger of the New York State Agricultural Experiment Station.

Dr. Shallenberger visited the chemistry laboratory at DeSales, where he explained some of the fundamentals of organic chemistry that would help the group do some work in elementary research.

Christmas Stockings at DeSales

For the last week before Christmas vacation, students of the Mission society at DeSales High School, Geneva, were busy collecting and packing into Christmas stockings items destined for St. Mary's Mission, Dunsmuir, North Dakota.

Charlette Boehman, vice president of the society, was aided by juniors Mary Ellen Hitchman and Mary Hargrove and freshmen Rebecca Shafer and James Carnevale.

Small Businesses Helped by SCORE

Service Corps of Retired Executives (SCORE), the local chapter of the Small Business Administration established originally to help in the financing of small businesses unable to obtain loans from other sources, is helping businesses of 25 or fewer employees in the Rochester area get on their feet.

Through this plan, retired or semi-retired executives with many years of experience in all phases of business administration are donating their time and talents to help small businesses grow and prosper in competition with large industries.

Owners and managers of small businesses are invited to take advantage of the services offered by SCORE.

The Small Business Administration's headquarters for the Rochester area is located in the Chimes Building, Syracuse and is directed by Martin A. Verbin.

'She Loves Me,' Musical Slated at Theatre East

'She Loves Me,' a musical in tune with the holiday season, will be Theatre East's Dec. 22-Jan. 8 production, on the Monroe County Fairgrounds, E. Henrietta and Calkins Rds.

The show was written by Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick, authors of Broadway's current hit, 'The Apple Tree.'

When 'She Loves Me' ran on Broadway, Norman Nadel, New York World-Telegram, called it a "rare theatrical jewel, an intimate musical that affectionately unfolds to an audience instead of shouting it down. It is dear, charming and wholeheartedly romantic."

Starring roles will be played by Carolyn Chrisman, DeVeren Bookwalter, Michael Norell, Fred Miller, Jerry Grasse and Ira Robbins. The director for this show is Clinton Atkinson, and Music Director is Byron Tinsley.

Evening performance, Tues. through Sat., are at 8:30, Sundays at 7:30, and Wednesday matinees at 2 p.m. There will be no Dec. 25 performance.

In a European perfume shop setting, two clerks constantly bicker, each unaware of being the other's secret correspondent. A few of the show's luring songs are: "Will He Like Me," "Twelve Days 'Till Christmas," "Days Gone By," "Grand Knowing You" and "She Loves Me."

Members of the Basilian Congregation in charge of Aquinas Institute were planning to take over the old Nazareth College property in Augustine St. after the college moved to the new Pittsford campus.

Bishop Kearney asked children of the diocese to contribute 10 cents each at Christmas for the Red Cross war program.
