

Mooney Rolls To Championship

Cardinal Mooney High School basketball team defeated Greece Arcadia and Greece Olympia High Schools to notch its first championship in the 2nd annual Greece Holiday Tournament. For the Cardinals, it was their 7th and 8th straight win without a loss.

Mooney met the Titans of Greece Arcadia on Tuesday in the first game of the classic and won, 56-28. The Cardinals displayed a tough aggressive pressing defense that put pressure on the Arcadia ball handlers throughout the game. This reference, Mooney fell behind, 19-19, at the end of the first half. The Greece Catholic school opened up its attack in the third period as their pressing defense began to pick up a number of loose balls and turned them into scores. Davis himself accounted for 6 steals and passed off for the scores. Davis, Dick Felber, Jim Harrington rebounded well for the Cardinals.

Offensively Davis led the scorers with 17 points while Harrington had 12 and Farrell 11.

Knights' NY Trip Spoiled

by JESS HEWITT

McQuaid Jesuit High takes a 6-3 basketball record into the new year following a split of two tight ball games in the annual Jesuit Tourney held in New York City last week. The Knights, after dropping a 65-64 headbreaker to Brooklyn, 2-2 in the quarterfinals, outlasted Xavier, 74-65, for consolation honors.

Though last week's victory over Xavier ended 1966 on a winning note, it couldn't quite erase the sting of McQuaid's last-second loss to Brooklyn. The Knights, after battling all through the second half to catch Brooklyn, finally took a 64-62 lead with 2:25 to play.

Brooklyn shaved it to one point with a foul, but McQuaid still had the lead and the ball as the game entered its last two minutes. At the 1:30 mark, the Knights had the ball slapped away, and Brooklyn began probing for the winning shot. For over a minute the McQuaid defense kept them outside and finally, with 15 seconds to go, a forced Brooklyn shot went off the rim, McQuaid rebounded, and victory seemed in sight. A last-second pass was picked off, and the Knights' defense held on to win the game. The Cardinals' defense that proved the difference in the game.

helped build up a 23-18 lead at the half. The defense tightened up in the second half as Mooney allowed the Titans 10 points on 3 field goals and 4 free throws. Scoring honors were quite even for Mooney as Davis had 12, Felber 11 and Harrington and Farrell 10 each. Bruce Lovell paced Arcadia with 10 points.

Mooney met Greece Olympia for the title on Thursday and beat Olympia, 52-32, after the Spartans defeated a tough Franklin five in their first contest. Again it was the hustling defense that the Cardinals are noted for that proved the difference in the game.

Kearney Wins

Defending champion Bishop Kearney High School flexed its wrestling muscles to once again out-point the Eastridge grapplers 81-77 in the Fourth Annual Eastridge Holiday Invitational Wrestling Tournament at Eastridge last Friday. The Kings' Gene Oberst was voted the outstanding wrestler of the tournament.

Seven Kings made the final round of the tourney: Pat Walsh, Tom Ciaccio, Gene Oberst, Art Rodgers, Greg Brown, Laverne Dickenson, and Tony Joy.

Besides Eastridge, Kearney defeated Iroquois of Buffalo, Canandaigua, Irondequoit, Madison, Webster and Franklin.

JIM MURAWSKI

Aquinas Is Runnerup

By KEVIN DONOVAN

Aquinas caused some commotion in its basketball game with Barron led Irish rebounders with 10 points while Dick East's Section Five Champions, with 9. Bounds took game high honors in both departments with fifteen points and ten rebounds.

Aquinas found the going quite a bit easier in the Waterloo game as the Irish raced to a 34-16 halftime lead and then spent the second half widening the margin to a final 71-42.

The Aquinas record is now 5-4. Brady, Aquinas' junior ace, led all scorers with 20 points.

Brady and teammate Jim Murawski were selected as members of the tournament all-star team.

In the tournament's championship game Jack Kelly's parochial crew surprised the Orientals with a deliberate slow down type of basketball, meant to offset East's height and speed.

With Aquinas not taking a shot in the game's first four minutes, the smothering tactics resulted in an early 4-0 Irish lead. However, five consecutive points by East's Norman Bounds contributed to East's 7-5 first quarter lead.

Aquinas opened the second quarter by taking an early 9-7 lead only to see East move ahead 15-12 at the intermission.

The Kellymen's strategy continued to control East's thunder, although the Orientals did maintain a 24-20 third quarter buzzer lead.

In the final quarter East employed the slow down strategy in order to keep the Irish from getting the imperative points. With the six-foot-plus Bounds gathering all important rebounds, and serving as the key to the deliberate play, Aquinas was forced to foul.

The result was disastrous as East cashed in from the charity line, and took advantage of offensive lapses on Aquinas' part.

The final 38-25 score was not indicative of the game's closeness.

Jim Brady led Aquinas scorers.

At War Memorial

Mooney vs. Aquinas McQuaid vs. Kearney

An early "big one" on the local scholastic basketball front comes up this Saturday night at the War Memorial when undefeated Cardinal Mooney (8-0) faces a formidable Aquinas challenger in the feature game of a parochial doubleheader.

McQuaid (6-3) and Bishop Kearney (2-6) meet in the opener at 7 o'clock.

Aquinas is given a good chance to hand Ed Nietopski, unbeaten Cards their first loss despite the Little Irish's unimpressive 5-4 record. Included in the losses were 2-point games with McQuaid and Madison, a close one against Monroe, and a respectable 39-25 showing against a potent East club.

Mooney has been the surprise of the area thus far, though Nietopski feels that his squad is just now beginning to hit the tough competition. The Cards get double figure scoring from seniors Jim Harrington and Otis Davis and solid jobs from senior Dan Shoniker and sophomores Dick Felber and Doug Farrell. The Lil Irish are led by Jim Brady.

Jim Murawski and Paul Fiore.

In the opener, McQuaid will be favored over Kearney, but the Kings are an improving outfit (they lost to Mooney in the closing seconds and gave Monroe a stiff battle in a return meeting) and figure to be much tougher than their record might indicate. Seniors Bruce Boss and Tom Mangione continue to be the scoring guns for the Kings, with Boss also doing a good share of the ball-handling.

McQuaid, having found in Bob Weingartner a scoring mate for John Koller, will be out to remain unbeaten in Catholic League play. In the last three games, Weingartner has hit for 69 points—while Koller has clicked for 82.

Notre Dame Takes Title

by A. ZINN

Notre Dame, under the leadership of first year coach Warren Fessler captured first place in the Oswego invitation basketball tournament at Oswego High School Dec. 29 and 30.

Notre Dame earned a place in the finals by edging Maine-Endwell 72-68 in an overtime thriller.

In the overtime period, ND's Arnie Westervelt, high scorer with 22 points, clinched the game for ND by sinking two foul shots putting the score at 72-68. After that the Crusaders stalled and allowed only two more points before the final buzzer.

Teaming up with Westervelt were Bill Baker with 19, and Dan McCarthy and Tom Russell with 12 each.

In the championship game ND again came alive in the last few minutes to overcome a 59-50 deficit and surge ahead to a 68-62 victory to take the title.

Senior ace Dan McCarthy was high scorer for ND with 25 points. Next was Arnie Westervelt with 19.

Stan Stefanski helped out the Crusaders with some clutch shooting and totaled out at 11 for the night. High scoring honors went to Jim Clark of Oswego who almost single handedly whipped the Crusaders with 35 points.

Notre Dame's record now stands at 6-0.

BRIAN MANNION

New Controller

Sister Margaret, Administrator of St. Mary's Hospital, has announced the appointment of Brian Mannion to the newly created position of controller. Mannion came to St. Mary's as an accountant in 1955. In 1963 he was promoted to the position of business manager. In conjunction with this, Sister Margaret has also announced the promotion of John Vail from assistant business manager to business manager.
