as Institute at the War Memorial last Saturday by a score of 42-34. It marked Mooney's ninth win without a loss and gave Aquinas their fifth loss against five wins for the season.

The low-scoring ball game was the result of loose ball handling and strong defensive play on both sides.

The Irish took a 10-4 first quarter lead as Dick Barron threw in seven straight points. However, the Cardinals staged a rally in the second quarter scoring 17 points to four for the Irish and pulled ahead, 21-14 at the half way mark. Mooney's sophomore substitute, Terry Meagher, scored eight points in the period to pace the Cardinals.

Sophomore Doug Farrell has emerged as the star cager at Cardinal Mooney High School averaging 9 points a game this season and his 4 fourth quarter bucket shots made the difference for Mooney to scuttle Aquinas in holiday fray.

The third quarter was pretty much a standoff between the teams and ended with the score at 32-26 in favor of Cardinal Mooney.

Dick Barron again brought the Irish within striking distance in the final period as he threw in all of his team's fourth quarter points, but it was not enough as Mooney's Jim Harrington and Doug Farrell led the game for the Cardinals.

Defensively, sophomores Dick Felber and Doug Farrell along with seniors Jim Harrington, Otis Davis and Dan Shonker turned an exceptional game for Cardinal Mooney. Felber and Aquinas' Dick Barron were outstanding in the rebound department as they both pulled down thirteen.

Barron was also the game's high scorer with nineteen. Otis Davis was high man for Mooney with ten points.

Mooney travels to Webster this Saturday.

CYO Swim Course Begins

The Catholic Youth Organization today announced the first session in Senior Life Saving Classes will begin on Wednesday, Jan. 18th at 7:00 p.m. The co-ed classes will be held every Wednesday from 7 to 8:30 p.m. for a ten-week period.

Instructor for the classes will be Mrs. Elizabeth Osborn, Women's Program Director at the C.Y.O.

St. John Fisher College wrestling star Ray Coley picks up riding time on the way to his win by decision in Saturday's competition with Potsdam State grapplers at Fisher. Coley, who is undefeated this season, won by a 4-0 score in the 177-pound class. Potsdam swept seven of nine bouts to win team scoring, 29-8.

Matmen Lose At Fisher

St. John Fisher wrestlers went down in defeat for the second time this season Saturday as undefeated Potsdam State won all but two bouts of the competition contested on the Fisher mat.

Ray Coley, who has not lost a match this season, won the 177-pound class for the Cardinals by decision. Potsdam forfeited the 123-pound class.

Fisher matmen also were in action at Rochester Institute of Technology Wednesday. They will play host to Plattsburgh State this afternoon (Friday, Jan. 13) and then will take a two-week break from action for semester final examinations.

McQuaid Rally Edges Kearney, 70-64

By MIKE SOPER

It took a ten-point spurt late in the last quarter to give McQuaid a 70-64 win over Bishop Kearney at the War Memorial last Saturday night.

The Knights, now 7-3, will next meet West on Friday night at the West court.

The Kearney game was hard-fought all the way. After the Kings chopped down an early McQuaid bulge, neither team had a lead of more than four points until the Knights' four-point burst. As the fourth period started, the score was knotted at 44-44, but Kearney jumped to leads of 48-44 and

Bowling

54-50 behind Bruce Boss and Dennis Fitzpatrick.

McQuaid closed to 57-56 before it began its winning 10-point run with just over 3 minutes to play. Then John Koller, who had been held to 13 points, hit on a jump shot and tipped in a missed foul shot. Bob Weingartner added 2 fouls for a 62-57 lead and then Koller came back with another rebound goal and made it a rare four-point play with 2 foul shots. That made it 66-57, and four more fouls by Weingartner in the final minute clinched it for the Knights.

Boss was the game's high scorer with 26 points while Fitzpatrick contributed 18. Koller helped McQuaid with 21 with help from Weingartner (18) and Nick Combs (16).

The next afternoon, McQuaid made it a sweep over the Kings with J.V. 63-38 and frosh (51-43) victories. Freshman Mike Panaggio led the jayvees to their 8th win in 9 games with 25 points while Ray O'Neill's 24 points helped keep the Knight freshmen unbeaten after 7 games.

Scuba Diving Classes Listed

The Catholic Youth Organization will offer a Scuba Diving class for all interested persons. The class will be held on Monday evening, beginning Jan. 30 and ending on March 20. The class will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. one night a week for eight weeks.

"Turnover" Aquinas Meets ER Tomorrow

By WHIT JOHNSON

Every basketball team seems to have its Achilles' Heel. Something that keeps the team from attaining greater heights than it does.

The Aquinas basketball team has two and thus the Irish cagers are struggling along with a so-so campaign.

Both problems were apparent last Saturday at the War Memorial as Aquinas fell before Cardinal Mooney, 42-34.

Aquinas' two problems are hitting a long dry spell in scoring and the age-old nemesis, turnovers—giving up the ball without taking a shot.

The Irish trailed Mooney 38-34 in the closing minutes of the game before the winners reeled off four points to put the game on ice. In previous games this year Aquinas' opponents were able to score 8 and 10 straight points and all of a sudden the games were out of reach.

With only three seniors on the entire squad, Coach Jack Kelly had to figure his inexperienced team will make mistakes. The squad, however, has been making just too many Saturday night 20 turnovers were recorded.

The Aquinas cagers return to action tomorrow night against the East Rochester Bombers at 8:30 in the East Rochester High School gymnasium. The Irish defeated the Bombers earlier in the season, 48-42. A preliminary game between the schools' junior varsity squads will get underway at 6:45.

GOD LOVE YOU
Most Reverend
Fulton J. Sheen

During the days of Stalin, some Communists were sent into a classroom in northern Russia where they distributed candy and cake. The children were then asked, "Who gave you these? Was it God?" They answered, "No." "But who gave them to you?" the Communists asked again. Then came the well-framed answer, "Stalin." How this seems to echo Soloviev's prophecy concerning the dictator at the end of the 20th century! He was pictured as the author of a book "Peace and Prosperity," a man who would feed the world.

This brings up the question—who gives us our blessings, our food, our clothing, our technology? The philosophical answer to the question is that God is the First Cause of all things, and man is the secondary cause. But there is another answer which affects us very vitally, namely, that since the Incarnation when God took upon Himself a human nature, it is through humanity that God redeems humanity. It is through you and me that God feeds the poor. The two hands that Mary gave Him at birth are in heaven, but He left a million hands behind. His two eyes that sought out the woman who touched the hem of His garment, and pierced the soul of the young man with great possessions, are in heaven, but He left eyes in your head and my head.

If we never look up from our shining kitchens, our attics full of possessions, our closets full of clothes, to the 200,000 missionaries the Holy Father has to care for—then Christ fails to that extent in us. Just as man has the power to "cooperate" with God in transforming trees into wooden houses, so he has the power of cooperating with Christ "to go about doing good." The earthly task of men is taken into the Divine Mission, and it is on the basis of this cooperation with Christ, that we will be judged, on the last day, "I was hungry and you gave Me not to eat."

When, therefore, one points to the two thirds of the people who go to bed hungry every night, one is not pointing out the failure of God's Providence; it is our own failure to seek first the Kingdom of God and our failure to be commissioners with Christ. The Heavenly Father fulfills His Mission and His Providence on earth through us. That is why for 16 years this God Love You column and MISSION Have gratitude's gold glasses seen better days? Rather, they seek to unite your sacrifices with Christ, to spiritualize you and to incorporate you with Christ prolonging His Incarnation in your human nature. If we have depended this love of Christ in your soul in this article, you will write to us. If we have not—then we must try again. But in the meantime pray for us that our work may go on, and that the Holy Father who has to care for all of the Missions of the world, may not be lacking those who will take Bethlehem seriously. God Love You!

INVITATION (R.S.V.P.)
Has your school principal graduated to the back of the drawer? Is your wrist watch too old to keep up with the times? Don't let these gold glasses feel useless any longer. Look up your old earrings, bracelets and necklaces (gold, silver, porcelain) and give them one last fling. Retire them with a royal send-off to the PROP and we promise to give them a reception equal to any they've ever had before: When melted down they'll be proud of the money they earned for the Missions. What a way to go! The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 366 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York.
