Monograms Awarded Scholars at Mooney

Scholastic honor monograms were awarded this past week in the Boys Department of Cardinal Mooney High School, Greece. The decision to award a monogram letter was made by the Academic Board of the school and any student who achieved the requirements set by this Board was awarded letters for the academic year 1966-67.

Senior class students honored were: James Cuvellir, James Goral, James Langebein, Donald Roth, Thomas Thrasher and Wayne Schifferli. Two junior boys, Robert Dixon and John Spohnower, were honored. Sophomores: Dallas Benedict, Gerard Furibondo, Michael Furibondo, Thomas Kapusta, Lawrence Klueber, William Krug, Donald Kunz, Daniel Lally, Charles Manel, Kevin Roach, Louis Saviano, Thomas Schoeneman and Daniel Weidman.

Thirty-eight freshmen received certificates from the National Educational Development Test corporation for their outstanding scores on this exam given at the school in November. Vice-principal, Brother Albert Ciri, C.S.C., made the presentation at a student assembly.

Shannons Mark Golden Jubilee

Mr. and Mrs. William Shannon celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Dec. 16. Mass was celebrated by their son, Monsignor William H. Shannon, in Nazareth College chapel.

Monsignor Francis Hoefen, who officiated at their wedding 50 years ago, was in attendance. Open house was held in Father Shannon's quarters for relatives and friends.

Actors Debut In Hay Fever

Moirra Wylie and William Hughes are two new members of Theatre East's resident company making their debut here in "Hay Fever," on the Monroe County Fairgrounds, E. Henrietta and Calkins Roads, Jan. 12-28.

Miss Wylie has had featured roles in the national companies of "A Man for All Seasons" and "The World of Suzie Wong." A graduate of the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art, she appeared in St. Mark's Playhouse Showcase productions before coming to the American stage.

She has played a variety of leading roles, ranging from Gertrude in "Hamlet" to Eileen in "Sunday in New York" in stock theaters, and Equity Theatre productions in New York.

Hughes, a Harvard graduate, made his first professional appearance in a national tour of "The Male Animal," was first seen on Broadway in "Last Stop" and most recently, in "Oedipus Rex."

Tickets for Theatre East productions may be reserved by calling 334-9500. Reservations are held at the theater box office until showtime. The next production will be Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," opening Feb. 2.

German Groups Schedule Ball

Friends and neighbors of members of the Federation of German American Societies of Rochester are being invited to the organization's Fourth Annual Galar Ball, Saturday evening, Jan. 14 in Sheraton Hotel ballroom.

The Polonaise will follow the overture in a program planned to bring a "little bit of gay old Vienna" to Rochester.

Marlene Gosert Bailey, said to be Rochester's leading German American singer will be featured. Highlight of the evening will be presentations of citations to outstanding German Americans whose activities have kept high the respect of the community for its German American citizens.
