Shaw's 'Major Barbara' Slated at Theatre East

One of George Bernard Shaw's funniest, most provocative comedies, "Major Barbara," will open a ten-day run, Feb. 16, at 8:30 p.m. at Theatre East, Monroe County Fairgrounds.

"The wit and crackling mind of modern English Theatre's most celebrated playwright combine to make 'Major Barbara' an exceptional, thoroughly enjoyable drama in a masterpiece of satire, a serious purpose is presented with sparkling humor."

The play's dramatic action arises from the clash of minds and wills of characters with such unlikely names as Under- shaft and Lady Britomart. The plot centers around the spiritual struggle of Barbara (Sarah Brown in "Guys and Dolls"), who believes that her becoming a Salvation Army major will be the salvation of the world—and her self.

Tickets for all Theatre East productions may be reserved by calling: 334-8500 and will be held at the box office, until just before showtime. Following "Major Barbara" will be the New York premiere of Harold Pinter's "The Birthday Party," Mar. 2-12.

Shakespeare's comedy, "Twelfth Night" runs through Feb. 2-12 at Theatre East.
