From that nice New England family, Prince: a true meat sauce in a 16 ounce jar.

It's a fact, Prince Meat Sauce has 50% more meat than called for by U.S. Government requirements! And the flavor is traditionally Italian.

Last year's Bishop's Awards Dinner, sponsored by the Diocesan Catholic Committee on Scouting, in the efforts of eight laymen of the diocese in the Scouting Movement were recognized by Bishop Kearney. From left to right, they are Messrs. John E. Dalton, Rochester; James B. Howard, Penn Yan; Urban Michalek, Rochester; Peter Barry, Rochester; (Bishop Kearney); Edward E. Ledeman, Hilton; Francis S. McGovern, Owego; Donald H. Gusina, Corning; and William F. Quigley, Auburn.

The plan provided for a Catholic Committee on Scouting in each diocese to promote Scouting in the diocese. While all 248 dioceses in the U.S. are represented in the first National Committee, among them the Diocese of Rochester.

Archbishop Mooney appointed Father Lambert as Diocesan Chairman and Mr. B. Emmert Pincham as the first diocesan chairman of the Catholic Committee on Scouting.

When Bishop Kearney was installed as Bishop of Rochester in 1957, he named Rev. Joseph E. Vogt to direct the diocesan Scouting program. Since that time, the program has been directed by Rev. J. J. Simons, of Holy Redeemer Church, Rochester. In those days Bishop Kearney said Mass on Scout Sunday for all Catholic Scouts in the city. In 1958, some 625 Scouts from 22 troops attended the Scout Sunday Mass in Sacred Heart Cathedral. At the Communion, Archbishop Mooney asked the Scouts to remain faithful to the Scout Oath by doing their duty to God. In succeeding years, Bishop Kearney celebrated Scout Sunday in Sacred Heart Cathedral, and in Blessed Sacrament and Corpus Christi parishes.

Father Vogt began a Catholic Scout Troop in the parish of St. George, Rochester, in 1957. Through the efforts of Father Vogt and such men as Messrs. Milton Schaefer, of St. Boniface, the late William McDonough, of St. Joseph, and the late William McDonough, of Holy Redeemer Church, Rochester, William J. Simons of Holy Redeemer Church, Rochester, and Paul S. Von Bach of the St. Ambrose area, many parishes began the Scouting program for their boys.

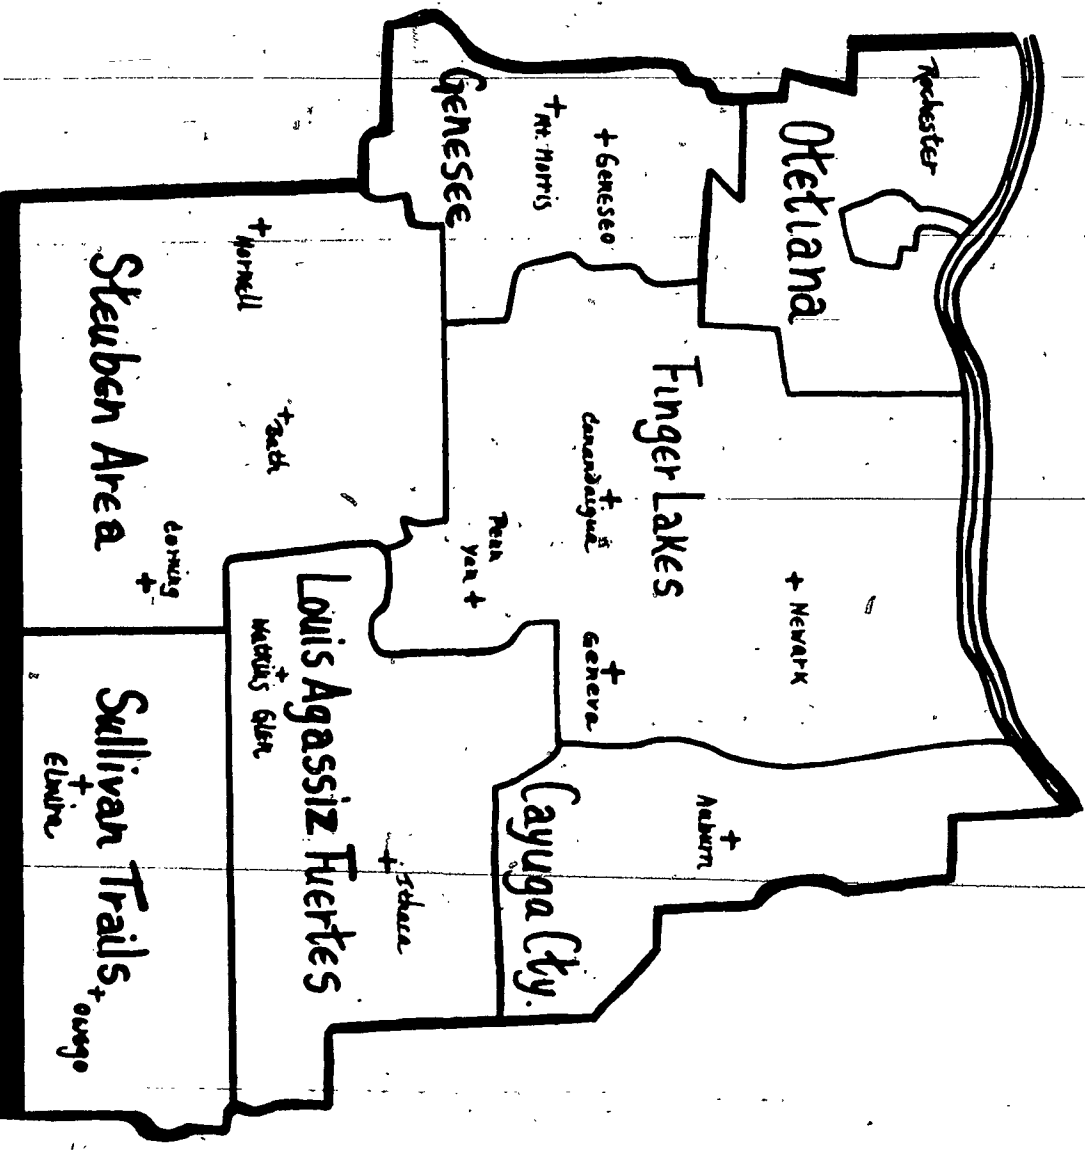

This early committee's activities reached a highpoint in May, 1940, when it sponsored the diocesan first Scout Day. Bishop Kearney and celebrated the Mass at St. Mary High School, now on the site where Jesuit missionary Father Louis Hennepin celebrated what was probably the first Mass ever offered in the Rochester metropolitan area 201 years before.

During the years of World War II, the Committee was less active. In 1941, Bishop Kearney directed the program, one more under the direction of the Catholic Committee on Scouting. On June 8, 1947, over 80 Scout executives, leaders, and prominent laymen met at the Rochester Metropolitan area 201 years before.

Scout Councils in the Diocese of Rochester

One of the important projects of the Catholic Committee on Scouting has been promoting Scouting in the diocese. In 1961, the Diocesan Catholic Committee on Scouting was organized. It is the first of its kind in the diocese.

Since 1961, the St. George Award has been presented to men who have served in Scouting. Thirty-seven men of this diocese have been so honored.

The Boy Scout Councils recognize men who have rendered outstanding service to boys with the Silver Beaver Award. The award is presented by the Bishop of Rochester.

The other area committees in the diocese have been conducting similar weekends and days of recollection. During the summer camping season, the Catholic Committee arranges for chaplains to celebrate Mass for Scouts at camps. They hope by means of these Field Masses and retreats to bring the boys in contact with the priest in the camping milieu.

The Religious Awards Program, sponsored by the Committee, is closely connected with the Scouting program. The award is presented to Scouts who have rendered outstanding service to boys.
