

Action on the court at Fisher.

Fisher Five Loses 75-69

Billy O'Rourke's 23-point performance in his first varsity game Saturday was a new high for a St. John Fisher player this season, but in spite of the newsmen's sharpshooters the Cardinals went down to defeat at the hands of Geneseo State's Knights, 75-69.

Trailing by nine points, 42-33, at halftime, the Knights evened the count in the first 2 1/2 minutes of play in the second period while holding the Cardinals scoreless.

O'Rourke, high point man for the game, is a former R. J. Thomas star in Webster. He transferred to St. John Fisher a year ago after attending the College of Wooster for one semester and was the mainstay of the classy Fisher frosh squad last term.

Center John Barnoski, drawing a starting assignment for the first time, turned in a noteworthy first half performance for Fisher. Capt. Jim Charles scored 15 points in playing one of the best games of his career.

In a preliminary game the Fisher freshmen outlasted Geneseo, 73-66, for their seventh win against a lone loss this season.

The Cardinals' next home game is against Waterloo Lutheran tomorrow at 8:15 p.m. in the Fisher Athletic Center.

Kearney Loses To Mooney Five

Cardinal Mooney basketball team beat arch rival Bishop Kearney 50-42 in the second meeting between the two schools. Mooney took the first contest 54-52. It was the 11th win for the Cardinals in 13 games and tied them with McQuaid for 1st place in the Catholic League. Each school now has 3 wins and 1 loss in league competition. Bishop Kearney is now 0-4 in Catholic League play.

Mooney fell behind 14-12 at the end of the first period—play as Howland, Shales and DeVoldre poured in all the points for the Kings. The Cardinals tightened up their defense in the second period as they allowed Kearney two field goals and went ahead 21-18 at the half. Mooney stormed back in the 3rd stanza, scoring 13 points to Kearney's 5 to go ahead 34-23. The Kings rallied back with a 19 point-outpour in the final quarter, but the rally fell short of the mark.

ND Loses 3rd Game

Corning-Painted Post East averted its first loss of the season at the hands of Notre Dame by defeating the Crusaders in an 86-74 setback at the Corning gym February 3.

Earlier in the season the Trojans from East suffered their first defeat in an overtime thriller at the N.D. court. They obviously weren't looking for a repeat performance this time, as they controlled most of the game, taking an early lead and an 11-point edge into halftime.

In the second half the Crusaders weren't able to pick up any ground as the Trojans used their lead effectively.

Leading the N.D. scorers were Arnie Westervelt and Tim McGill with 21 points apiece and Bill Baker with 11.

The Trojans shot a very respectable 49% from the field and an 18 for 27 mark from the foul line. Notre Dame hit for a lower 38% from the floor, but converted on 28 of 33 at the line.

SJFC Loses On Mat

Luckless St. John Fisher College wrestlers lost their sixth meet of the season at Plattsburgh Saturday at the hands of Plattsburgh State, 33-8.

Fisher's only winners were Mike Law by decision in the 130-pound class and Mike Cass by pin at 152 pounds.

The Cardinals will challenge Ithaca College tomorrow at Ithaca.

CYO Offers Golf Lessons

Semi-private and group lessons are being offered by the C.Y.O. to all interested in coming out of hibernation. Here is a chance to receive expert lessons from Associate pro Pete Vandewaker of Craig Hill at a minimum charge.

There will be two sections to choose from: Section I being semi-private lessons at $15.00 for 8 weeks, and Section II group at $5.00 for 8 weeks.

The lessons, starting March 2, will be climaxed with a trip to a golf course.

25 Years Ago

(From Catholic Courier Files, Feb. 12, 1942)

Modified Lenten Regulations for defense workers were announced at the Chancery by Bishop Kearney. The Chancery also reported a large number of religious articles for servicemen being received from school children to aid the chaplains in the armed forces.

Hitler's great weapon in the Americas was one of bluff — the number of Nazi propagandists really present in South America was negligible, Archduke Felix of Austria declared at Aquinas Christian Culture lecture.
