Catholic, Methodists Agree on Faith Concept

By FATHER JAMES P. ROACHE

Chicago — (NC) — Conversations between 24 representatives of the Catholic and the Methodist Churches here pointed up large areas of basic agreement and accented the truth that all Christians have much more in common than they sometimes realize.

The second between representatives of the Catholic and the Methodist churches. The Catholic participants were headed by Bishop Joseph B. Brunini, apostolic administrator of the Natchez-Jackson, Miss. diocese, and the Methodist group by Bishop P. Gerald Ensey, Columbus, Ohio, resident leader of the Methodist Ohio-West Area.

Dr. Huston said Methodist participation in the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity had increased several fold in the past two years and that preparations are well under way for the observance in January, 1967. Bible study sessions during the conversations were led by Bishop James K. Mathews of Boston, resident-leader of the Methodist Boston area, and Pastoralist Father Barnabas Ahern, professor of Sacred Scripture at St. Meinrad's, Ind., Seminary.

Clergy Endorse Rite Changes

Pittsburgh — (RNS) — Some 200 priests of the Diocese of Pittsburgh have signed a cable to the Post-Conciliar Commission on the Liturgy in Rome endorsing the 13 liturgical reforms requested by U.S. bishops at their recent meeting in Washington.

Bishop Sheen welcomes Miss Carmel Barrone to the staff of the diocesan office of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Monsignor John F. Duffy, director, said increased interest in the Church's worldwide-mission apostolate required adding a fourth member to the staff.

Reformation Still Needed

New York — (RNS) — Dr. Franklin Clark Fry, president of the Lutheran Church in America, stated in a New Year message that 1967 should find Lutherans "catching fire."
