

Fisher Glee Club a Winner

The St. John Fisher College Glee Club made its competitive debut one to be remembered Sunday, Feb. 19, as it was selected first place winner in the 1967 Intercollegiate Glee Club Festival held at Kings College, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Their appearance at Kings College marked the first time that Fisher singers performed outside New York State. The Glee Club was one of the first extracurricular activities begun after the college opened in 1951. Mr. Howard, an assistant professor of English at Fisher, was appointed Glee Club director last September.

Fisher topped eight choral groups to win the 30-inch first-place trophy. Judging was by members of all competing clubs.

Under the direction of H. Wendell Howard, the Fisher singers performed both Saturday and Sunday. For their first program they sang "The Monarch Wine" by Marschner, "Aure Lee" by Poulton, and the traditional "Vive l'Amour." Turning to sacred songs for Sunday, Mr. Howard chose "Go Tell it to the Mountains" and "My Lord, What a Mornin'," both Negro spirituals, and "Praise Ye the Lord of Hosts" by Saint-Saens.

Other participants in the festival were Holy Cross College, St. Peter's, Mount St. Mary's, Providence, Kings, Seton Hall University, and the University of Scranton.

Scouters Plan Training Meet

The first Catholic Scouter Development training session will be held at the Capuchin monastery, Geneva, Sunday, Feb. 26, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

An estimated 50 Scouters will attend from the seven Scout Councils in the area of the 12-county diocesan area.

John McCarthy, chairman of the Bishop's Committee on Scouting, will be in charge of the day-long meeting and Edward Sloane is chairman of the development program.

A group of Scouters from Buffalo will attend Sunday's meeting.

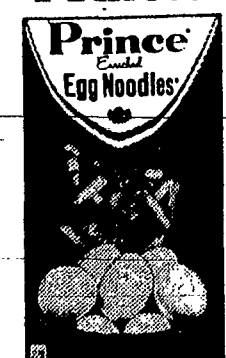

Capuchin priests and seminarians will conduct study sessions on development of the spiritual life. Mass will be offered at 9 a.m.

MRS. VIRGINIA BOGDAN PADOS Composer

New musical settings for the proper texts of the Mass have been arranged by Mrs. Virginia Bogdan Pados of the Church of the Assumption, Fairport. A 72-page book titled "God's Holy Mountain" provides faux-horizon settings for all holidays, several feasts including Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Easter Vigil and Easter Sunday. A Communion hymn "In Mystery and Majesty" by Dominican Sister Mary Vincent is also included in the book available from the World Library of Sacred Music, Cincinnati.

Fisher Courses Evaluated

A 13-man team of college professors and administrators representing the Middle States Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools completed a four-day re-evaluation of St. John Fisher College Wednesday.

The group was headed by Dr. John A. Lester, professor of English at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa. Other members were from Drew University, Canisius College, Fordham University, Wells College, Lehigh University, St. Francis College, Union College, and the New York State Education Department.

For the first time in Middle States history, two representatives of the institution being examined were appointed to the evaluation team. They are Rev. Joseph B. Dorsey, C.S.B., dean of St. John Fisher, and Dr.
