

Jesuit Mission Benefit at Capacity

For the second year, the Annual Jesuit Mission Benefit Dinner, sponsored by the Rochester Loyola Council, seems to be headed for a social and financial success. According to Mrs. William Wilmot, Chairman of Reservations, the Second Annual Dinner is a complete sell-out.

The receipts from tickets to the Dinner and contributions will go to the aid of the Jesuit Missionaries in the Caroline and Marshall Islands, the assignment by the Holy Father to the Buffalo Province of the Society of Jesus of which Rochester is part.

Assisting Mrs. Wilmot on reservations were Mrs. Peter DeLucia, Cochairman, and Mrs.

MRS. WILMOT

Thomas Garvey. In charge of decorations were Mrs. Thomas Presutti and Mrs. Joseph Mancini. Hostess is Mrs. Mark Tuohy. Father O'Malley and Mrs. Michael Cihane are in charge of entertainment. Arrangements were handled by Mrs. Joseph Gagliano.

General chairman for the event has been Mr. William Wilmot assisted by Chairman Joseph Mancini and Charles Drons. Special gifts Chairman were Anthony G. Cashette and Thomas Presutti.

The program for the Dinner will feature the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, D.D., and the Toastmaster will be the Rev. Albert P. Bartlett, S.J., rector of McQuaid.

Honor Society

Rev. Gerald McMahon, S.J., of McQuaid Jesuit High School, has announced the names of the charter members of the school's chapter of the National Honor Society. This is the first year McQuaid has had a chapter in the honor society and the first twenty-five members in McQuaid's unit are seniors.

The members of the society are chosen for their scholastic record, as well as for their leadership qualities and integrity. The chapter is to be a service organization within the school.

Meeting Topic

New York (NC)—The 1967 International Congress on Religion, Architecture and the Visual Arts will be held here Aug. 30-Sept. 2.

A Retreat

At Theater

New York City (RNS)—A Broadway theater will be the unique setting for a special retreat for Roman Catholic show people.

Guest speaker during the afternoon retreat will be Father Thomas Murphy, S.J., assistant at St. John the Martyr church here. Father Murphy, who recently completed several years' work among the unfortunate in the Bowery area, was a maritime ship captain and maritime lawyer before entering the priesthood.

Father William Shelley will be moderator of the retreat which will conclude with a "folk" Mass.

Where's Bishop Going to Be?

"Where's Bishop Sheen going to preach this Sunday?" or "How can I get to talk to Bishop Sheen?" are some of the questions phoned frequently to the Courier.

Here's his schedule for this week:

St. Francis Church, Phelps, Friday, March 3, 7-9 p.m., Mass and sermon.

Sacred Heart Cathedral, Saturday, March 4, 9 p.m., holy hour for Nocturnal Adoration Society.

Sacred Heart Cathedral, Sunday, March 5, 1 p.m., sermon at Mass.

St. Stanislaus Rectory, Wednesday, March 8, 3 to 7:30 p.m., for people to visit him. Mass and sermon in Church at 7:30 p.m.

Holy Trinity Church, Webster, Friday, March 10, 7-9 p.m., Mass and sermon.

Boys Wanted—For Fun at Camp

Stella Maris—diocesan camp at Conesus Lake—is looking for boys... to give them a good time this summer.

Registration may now be made at the camp office at the Columbus Bldg., 50 Chestnut St., Rochester 4, phone 454-2030.

The Camp will mark its 40th anniversary this summer.

Girl campers may also be registered for the latter weeks of August.

Boys camp, earlier in the summer, is staffed by students from St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries.

Radio Rosary's 17th Birthday

The nightly broadcast of the Family Rosary for Peace will mark its 17th birthday with its 6217th consecutive program tomorrow evening at 7 p.m.

Frank E. Wolfe, one of the pioneer laymen in the project and a member of the program's board of directors, will lead in recitation of the anniversary Rosary.

A Mass of thanksgiving will be celebrated at the same time. Monsignor Joseph Cirincione, program director, founded the radio devotion in 1950. The broadcast originates at the St. Francis of Assisi Rosary Chapel and is aired on a five station network.

ND Students Win Contest

Four Notre Dame High School students were winners in a county-wide contest conducted by the Channing County Human Relations Commission during Brotherhood Week.

Ingrid Swanson, Notre Dame senior, and Thomas Russell, sophomore, won second and third places respectively in the essay contest. Julie Sage, senior, and Mary Frailey, sophomore, placed second and third in the poster contest.

Talks Recorded

A tape recording of Bishop Sheen's and Rabbi Tennenbaum's talks is available from the Diocesan Ecumenical Commission, 414 Lexington Ave., Rochester, for $9.00 and a second tape of talks given when Bishop Sheen was welcomed at a reception by the Jewish community, for $7.50, or both tapes for $15.50. Payment is to accompany orders.
