Concert Slated in Elmira

The Sisters of St. Joseph Concert will make a return engagement to Elmira this year following a successful concert given last year.

The group of 107 Sisters will present a Choral program of numbers ranging from classical and modern sacred music to Broadway hits.

The excellence of the program universally noted and was acclaimed widely in view of the fact that the Sisters are not professional musicians, but devote their time to teaching, nursing and social work in the Rochester Diocese.

The director, Sister Claudia, head of the music department at St. Agnes High School in Rochester, has received professional training in conducting at the Eastman School of Music teachers and from Doctor Austin Truitt.

The Elmira concert will be given Saturday, April 15 at 8 o'clock in the auditorium at Notre Dame High School.

Sisters in the group from Elmira are, Sister Marie Pierre, Sister Janice, Sister Andre, Sister Katrina, Sister Anthony and Sister Rita.

In the photo, seated are Mrs. Margaret Post, Sister Claire Josepha and Sister Casimir. Standing are Joseph Lynch, general chairman and Alva Morgan. The group is making detailed arrangements for the affair.

Jesuit Listed At Cenacle

A special retreat for High School Junior and Senior girls will be conducted by Father Eugene Tucker, S.J. of Philadelphia, Pa., the weekend of March 31 — April 2.

In the course of this forty-eight hour retreat, retreatants listen to eight talks or meditations by the retreat master, a priest who is specially trained for this type of work.

Religious services such as Mass and Benediction are held daily and the priest is also on hand for private talks and to hear confessions.

For reservations write or call 271-8755.
