300 Attend Scout Exhibit

Three hundred Girl Scouts and parents participated in a Mass and Communion Breakfast on Sunday, March 12 at Holy Trinity Church, Webster, marking the 55th birthday of Girl Scouting in America.

The Scouts comprising students at the public and parochial schools who are members of the parish, marched into church behind their flags. The 9 o'clock Mass was said by Father Michael Conboy, Scout chaplain and assistant pastor at Holy Trinity, and served by three Boy Scouts in dress uniform.

At the breakfast which followed in the school hall, guests of honor were the Sisters of St. Joseph who staff Holy Trinity School; Mrs. Rita Tranten, a member of Lakeside neighborhood service team, and her two daughters; and Miss Mary Bartkowiak, district advisor and director of Camp Beechwood.

Following the showing of a series of camp slides, a delegation of girls presented more than eighty Girl Scout handbooks to be used in the inner city. The girls had collected these books as a service project and had also contributed 10 cents each towards the purchase of new books.
