City Bowling Tourney To Open April 29
The Rochester Bowling Association will sponsor the 49th annual City Bowling Tournament which opens on Saturday, April 29.
Joe Holzschuh, Association president, says that this year's tournament will offer an estimated prize fund of $10,000.
This amount means the prize ratio will be one to eight in each event, and one for twelve in all events. In addition, there will be trophies and awards given for both handicap and scratch champions. Contestants may win both scratch and handicap prizes.
The five-man team events will be held at Seneca Lanes, located at 27 Seneca Ave. (near Red Wing Stadium). The doubles and singles will be rolled at East Side Bowling Hall, located at 873 Merchants Rd. (near Culver).
Milt Alt, tournament director, says entry blanks may be obtained at all bowling establishments throughout the city. He advises that anyone desiring choice dates should make their reservations early. Alt may be reached by writing him at 282 Avis St., Rochester, N.Y. 14615, or, by phone at 458-2069.

34 Receive KC Degree
Ithaca — The degree staff of Ithaca Council # 277, Knights of Columbus recently conferred the First Degree upon a class of 34 candidates in the V.F.W. Hall.
Arrangements have been made to have First and Second Degrees on Thursday, March 30 in the Immediate Conception School Gym. Candidates who qualify will receive the Major Degree on Sunday, April 2 in the Columbus Civic Center in Rochester.
The current membership drive of the Ithaca Council for one hundred new members will continue into April with Degrees being scheduled for that month.
At a recent Open House, the drawings for the new Knights of Columbus Home were on display and construction will start as soon as the negotiations for the new tenants have been completed.

Zollo Design Wins
Carl Zollo of Rochester, (second from left) has been commissioned to interpret the Golden Eagle, symbol of the State University College at Brockport, in sculpture. His proposed design was judged the best entry in an invitational sculpture competition; he will receive $1,000 for his completed work. The money is a gift of the senior class at the college.
He has been a television art director for 10 years, most recently with WROC-TV.
He is the winner of more than a score of awards, and has completed commissions for 10 colleges and churches in the area.

HAPPY EASTER? HERE'S HOW!
THE HOLY FATHER'S MISSION AID TO THE ORIENTAL CHURCH
GIVE SOME HAPPINESS TO A CHILD
When are you happiest? Happiness lies in giving. You're happiest when you give yourself to the people who need you most. . . . A mother, for instance, hums with happiness when she bathes and dresses her baby. A good nurse always has time for a smile. Good fathers whistle at their work. . . . The best sort of giving involves more than writing checks—still, how better can you help the children now who need you overseas? Boys and girls who are blind, lepers, deaf-mutes, orphans—your money gifts, large and small, will feed them, teach them, cure them, give them a chance in life. . . . Want to be happier this Easter? Give some happiness to a child. You'll be happy, too!
