

Every Holy Week

Miss Mary Nordeman of Philadelphia was in Rochester for Holy Week to attend Bishop Sheen's talks at Sacred Heart Cathedral. She takes her vacation from her waitress chores at Linton's Restaurant each year to hear the noted prelate who is now Bishop of Rochester. "I guess I've been doing this for 25 years," she said. After Holy Thursday's Mass, she presented the Bishop a box of homemade cookies.

Michael Spang, Mutual Fund Head

Michael Spang, former athletic director at Bishop Kearney High School, today announced the formation of Mutual Funds Associates, Inc., with offices at 455 Empire Blvd.

Spang who is president of the company, has 6 years experience in the mutual fund industry.

The new company specializes in the sale of mutual funds, and is registered with the necessary State and Federal agencies, as an independent broker-seller.

Mutual Funds Associates, Inc. is locally owned and operated and currently employs eight salesmen and women as registered representatives to service Rochester and the surrounding area.

Knights, CCD Plan Series

Grand Knight Edward Miller has announced that Rochester Council No. 178, Knights of Columbus has joined forces with the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine to present a series of four Adult Education sessions in Rochester Clubrooms, 513 Monroe Ave., starting Friday, March 31 at 8:15 p.m.

First session will consist of an address by Sister Marietta, M.H.S., whose subject will be, "The Lay Apostle Comes of Age." This will be followed by a question and discussion periods.

The sessions are for the members of the Knights of Columbus, their families and friends.

Adult Theology Series Offered by Capuchins

Geneva — A program on Adult Theology will be sponsored by the Capuchin Fathers of Immaculate Heart of Mary Seminary for eight successive Mondays April 3-May 22, in De Sales High School.

Three courses in Catholic and "Biblical Perspectives" thought for Adults will consist of a series of eight lectures. Purpose of the program is to give the average adult Catholic an opportunity to catch up on some of the new developments taking place in various areas of theology particularly since Vatican II Council.

Subject of the courses are: "The New Approach to Moral..."
