

Newmanites List Lecture By Br. David

The Newman Club of the University of Rochester will present its second spring lecture on Sunday evening, April 23. A talk entitled "A Monk of the West looks to the East" will be given by Brother David of Mount Saviour Monastery in Pine City, New York.

The talk is open to the public at 8 p.m. Sunday, April 23 at Hoyt Hall, University of Rochester, River Campus.

BROTHER DAVID was born and raised in Vienna, Austria, where he studied art, anthropology, and psychology. He holds degrees from the Vienna Academy of Fine Arts and the Vienna Psychological Institute. He received a Doctorate in Experimental Psychology from the University of Vienna.

In 1953 Brother David joined the then newly founded Benedictine Monastery of Mount Saviour at Pine City (near Elmira), where he received formal training in philosophy and theology. In 1958-1959 he was a Post-Doctoral Fellow at Cornell University.

DEEPLY concerned with the search for a spirituality that will meet the challenge of our time, and with the role of monachism as a bridge between East and West.

Brother David has given lectures at the University of Michigan; Fordham, Georgetown, Cornell, and New York Universities; R.P.I.; and a lecture series in the fall of 1965 at Colgate Rochester Divinity School which form the basis for a book in preparation on Man's Encounters with Mystery.

Brother David is studying at Columbia University and the Zen Studies Society in New York City. A trip to Japan and the East is planned.

Fresh Air Fund To Be Sponsored By Zonta Club

Geneva—Zonta Club of Geneva will again sponsor the Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund project for Geneva and area this summer.

Mrs. Jay Cochrane and Mrs. William McGowan are co-chairmen of the local project.

Mrs. Fred Dyson of Newark, coordinator for the three-county area of Orange, Warren, Yates, has scheduled a luncheon meeting in Newark for April 29 for children of the Friendly Towns in the area.

A representative of the Herald Tribune Fresh Air Fund office, in New York will be guest speaker at the luncheon.

Last year Geneva committee placed 15 Fresh Air youngsters in the local area but the Herald Tribune would have underwritten transportation costs for 30 youngsters had the committee been able to obtain hostesses.

Arrival dates for the Fresh Air children are July 12 and July 27. Reservations for new invitations will be accepted until late June. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Cochrane or Mrs. McGowan. Deadline for reservations is May 12.
