Edward Carmody Last Rites Held At St. Mary's

Funeral Mass was offered for Edward A. Carmody, at St. Mary's Church, Friday, April 14. Mr. Carmody, who was 71, and lived at 488 Laureton Rd., died in Northside Hospital after a short illness.

He was born in Malden, Mass., and came to Rochester 15 years ago. He was a chef at Guy Michael's Restaurant on Mt. Hope Ave. and then operated his own restaurant at 167 South Goodman St. He retired five years ago.

Before coming to Rochester, he was New York State representative for the Fleischman Yeast Co. for 15 years and then manager of Farham's Old English Restaurant in Albany.

He was a life member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and a member of the Adoration Society of Corpus Christi Church.

D. A. Kolbeck Receives Grant

David A. Kolbeck, 33 Lisbon St., a junior at St. John Fisher College, is among 36 scholarship-winners who will attend the 1967 NDEA Institute in Italian for Undergraduates Preparing to Teach at Rutgers-The State University, New Brunswick, N.J., this summer.

Kolbeck, 21, is a McQuaid Jesuit High School graduate and a modern language major at St. John Fisher. His scholarship provides for free tuition and $75-weekly-for-living-expenses.

Money Shower For Mission

A "money shower" will be given for Father Joseph Knoebel, S.V.D., on April 30 at Holy Apostles school hall from 2 to 5 p.m.
Money should be brought in envelopes bearing the name of the donor. Refreshments will be served.
Tapes will be played and slides of Father's mission in New Guinea will be shown.
