

WORSHIP

With Your Family Every Week . . .

We differ in many matters, but our mutual charity already makes a certain bridge across the differences. The divisions are growing less, and we are convinced that the Holy Spirit of God has already given proof of his guidance in our efforts and will continue to guide us, step by step, towards the attainment of the perfect unity which Christ wills.

—Augustin Cardinal Bea

This endeavor contributes to the clarification of issues and reveals both the greatness and the limitations of those assembled and of the positions they hope to represent. No little thing is achieved when Jews and Christians come out of their respective ghettos and decay the walls they have built or that have obscured their vision and prevented their free action and progress.

—Marcus Barth

Q—Who Is My Neighbor?

A. Mankind of every description even though he differs from us in race, color or religion.

(From the Baltimore Catechism used in Parochial schools for the past 75 years)
