

Nun Drafted in Tanzania

Tabora, Tanzania — (RNS) — Sisters in the Army now. Although many of Tanzania's Catholics have protested her call to national service, Sister Maria Thaddea of the Order of the Daughters of St. Mary is undergoing automatic weapon and bayonet training. The 25-year-old nun, third from left, is shown clapping hands as she joins other recruits in singing a National Service song.

Catholics and Protestants of Penfield-Webster area have learned about each others religious beliefs and practices through "Living Room Dialogues" — an increasingly popular form of study.

Masons Hear Noted Jesuit

New York — (RNS) — Father Robert I. Gannon, S.J., president-emeritus of Fordham University, addresses members of the Masonic Order in New York State at their annual breakfast in the Waldorf-Astoria. The first Catholic priest to speak before the state Masons, the Jesuit educator also addressed a second Masonic breakfast on the same morning in another hotel. Seated from left are Dr. Daniel A. Polling, noted Protestant minister and board chairman of Christian Herald magazine, and Frank C. Staples, grand master of the state Masons' Grand Lodge. Father Gannon told the Masons, "I wish good Pope John could see me now... He would have loved it. This is the way he wanted things to happen."

Masons Listen To a Jesuit

New York — (RNS) — A Jesuit priest here made history by speaking before two annual breakfasts of the Masonic Order in New York State.

Father Robert I. Gannon, S.J., president-emeritus of Fordham University and now superior of Jesuit missions, addressed more than 5000 Masons attending breakfasts at the Waldorf-Astoria and Commodore hotels.

"I wish that Good Pope John could see me now," he said, "a poor, defenseless Jesuit taking his life in his hands before thousands of Free and Accepted Masons. He would have loved it. This is the way he wanted things to happen."

At each breakfast, Father Gannon received a standing ovation from the Masons.

Father Gannon joked that when the late Pope John called the Second Vatican Council, he did not expect the Masons of the world to join the Knights of Columbus.

He was referring to an announcement in February that the world's bishops is an expression of the Church's ever active collegiality and therefore ranks on almost the same level of importance as the Second Vatican Council, according to one of Europe's foremost theologians.

Synod Rated 'Important'

Rome — (NC) — The synod of the world's bishops is an expression of the Church's ever active collegiality and therefore ranks on almost the same level of importance as the Second Vatican Council, according to one of Europe's foremost theologians.

Dominican Father Edward Schillebeeckx added that he would like any decisions of the current Dutch National Pastoral Council subjected, where necessary, not to the scrutiny of the Roman Curia but to the synod of bishops. The Roman Curia is the Church's central administrative offices.

The synod meets for the first time in September.

New Magazine to Replace 15 Mission Publications

Paris — (NC) — Starting in May, a new joint missionary magazine, Peuples du Monde, will replace at least 15 missionary magazines now in existence here.

Some of those being absorbed in the new publication are Vivants d'Afrique, Missions Françaises de Paris, Missions des Iles, and Echos des Missions Africaines de Lyon.

In October, the new magazine will also replace Comitree les Missions, the organ of Service Missionnaire des Jeunes, the French missionary movement for boys and girls, and Malades et Missions for invalids.

The Bishops' Committee for the Foreign Missions, the Pontifical Mission Aid Societies and over 100 missionary institutes of men and women are giving their support.

People Comfort

Ecumenical spirit is no phrase at Nazareth Coll. Rochester — it's a way of life. Although run by the order of St. Joseph and considered many a college for Catholic young women, a check of registration cards of the college's students shows that a number of them do not come from a Catholic religious background. There are girls at the college from many other faiths.
