If your child looked like this

would you not give something to help?

If your child is worth more than any thing to you, think of this boy in the photo. He has yaws, a widespread tropical disease which causes severe disfigurement, crippled bones, blindness and eventual death. But the most startling fact about yaws is how little it takes to cure it—$10. A child like this has only you to turn to. In Mission lands millions like him are without care.
