POP TOPICS

Hi 'POP' Friends,
Here we are in the merry month of May even tho' weather-wise, it hasn't been too merry so far! One good thing about these chill days—they do whet the appetite for all those substantial dishes made with POP Products. We hope you're using these and are also remembering to save their money-making labels.

- We extend a special welcome to the following organizations which have recently joined us for POP Game No. 2:
- Brother Novices Mission Club, Conesus
 - C.F.M., Nativity of the B.V.M. Church, Brockport
 - The Fading Marigolds—T.O.P.S., Rochester
 - Home-School Association, St. Mary's Church, Waterloo
 - Kappa Sigma Phi Sorority, Rochester
 - Knickerbocker Hill Garden Club, Pittsford
 - Ladies Auxiliary, Knights of St. John, Gates
 - Mothers Club, St. Augustine's Church, Rochester
 - Our Lady's Guild, Holy Name of Jesus Church, Greece
 - St. Joseph's Blue Cross Medical Mission Group, Canandaigua

Within the next few days, if not already, all our POP Registrants—old and new—will be receiving the tally sheets for this second Game. Each sheet contains specific information about the time and place for turn-ins as well as the listing of POP Products with the point value of each. Note that label turn-ins should now be made directly to the Courier Journal office, 35 Scio St.

We've also sent a supply of POP Shopping Lists and POP Booklets which explain the Game. Be sure to distribute one of these lists to each active member of your organization, and a brochure where you think it might be helpful. The list will serve as a reminder to individual members, of what products to buy and what proof of purchase to save.

The Charlotte Appliance Co. is continuing its special Pops! Cola offer throughout next week. For details, see their ad in this issue of the Courier.

Last but by no means least—do let us know if your organization has a new president and (or) a new POP Chairman. If you're now out of office, it's O.K. to hand labels, but not POP information! This should go to the incoming president or chairman. So please, won't you cooperate by passing on to either of them any material we send you, and inform us of the change in offices. Just phone or write Mrs. Ennis, POP Coordinator, Courier Journal—454-7050—35 Scio St., Rochester, NY. 14604.
