'Open-Ended' Workshop

Sulpician Father Frank B. Norris, one of the principal speakers at the June 19 to 22 workshop for priests, in a letter to clergy arranging the workshop, said, "My talks will aim at presenting as integral and total a view of the nature of the Church as I can. They will obviously be rooted in the conciliar teachings of Vatican II but will not be limited to what the Council explicitly taught. I shall endeavor to develop some of the 'open-ended' ideas and themes of the Council, especially as regards the relationship between pope and bishops and the relationship between priests and bishop."

Cancer Benefit Gala

Comedian Norm Crosby, a favorite with television fans and supper club audiences will appear at the Eastman Theatre next Thursday, May 25 along with singing star Robert Goulet, headlining the first annual Gala to benefit the American Cancer Society.

Tax deductible tickets for the one-night-only performance, priced at $5, $7, $8, and $9—are available at the Eastman Theatre Box Office, 10 to 6, daily or by check payable to American Cancer Society, 40 Franklin St., Rochester, 14606.

Crosby, whose sophisticated humor includes the misuse of words in comic fashion, has been featured at leading night-spots including clubs in Las Vegas, Miami and other resort areas. He has also made numerous guest appearances on TV Variety programs.

Goulet's most recent Television appearance was a starring role in ABC-TV's production of the Rodgers and Hammerstein musical, "Carousel." He's scheduled on "The Ed Sullivan Show" Sunday, May 28, just three days after his Rochester performance. He will also host "College Queen Pageant" on NBC on June 16.

WBFB Radio personality, Joe Deane, serving as Special Events Chairman for the Rochester unit of the American Cancer Society, said that tickets for the May 25 Goulet Show were selling at a brisk rate, although plenty of good seats remained in all price brackets.

Proceeds from the Benefit Performance will go to the American Cancer Society to finance various research projects, many of them in the Rochester area.
