

John G. Burns,
Noted Athlete

Funeral Mass for John G. (Scotty) Burns was offered by Monsignor Maynard A. Connel in St. Margaret Mary Church, June 14 with Reverend Fathers Walter Fleming, Joseph Reinhardt and William Trott in attendance.

Mr. Burns, 60, of 1780 St. Paul St., a Rochester sports figure for many years and a Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. salesman for 33 years, died June 10, 1967.

Mr. Burns was born in Rochester, Sept. 14, 1906. He played basketball and baseball at Cathedral High School and won a sports scholarship to St. Bonaventure University. In his freshman year, he made the varsity baseball, basketball and football teams. In his sophomore year, he transferred to the University of Rochester where he starred in baseball and basketball.

In his senior year, he was signed by the St. Louis Cardinals organization by Branch Rickey and Warren Giles. Later he played for Dansville, Ill. entry in the Three Eye League. He played for a number of semi-pro baseball teams in Rochester including the Oldsmobiles.

He was a member of the Men's Club of St. Margaret Mary Church, the Veterans Association of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and Delta Kappa Epsilon University of Rochester fraternity.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mary Burns, a daughter, Mrs. A. H. (Virginia) Cenedella, Portola Valley, Calif.; two sons, John G. Jr. of Montreal and Richard M. Burns; two sisters, Mrs. Edmund (Marion) Ewart and Mrs. Walter (Claire) Koch, both of Rochester; two brothers, Roy of Rochester and Thomas of Brockport.

Blessing at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery was given by Father Reinhardt.

Both Mr. Burns' sons, John G. Jr. and Richard have been active in sports at Aquinas Institute and McQuaid Jesuit High School and at the University of Rochester where they both played on varsity teams.

Mary Hanick
