POP TOPICS

A special salute to one of our Rochester POP Participants—St. Anthony's School! Not only has this school made a fine turn-in of labels, but under the direction of Mrs. John Penna, school secretary and POP Chairman, the children have participated in grade contests and special promotions of POP Products.

Now that school is out, we hope they'll continue to save during the summer. Their collection of labels won't have to be a burden for Mother—they can bring these to Mrs. Penna who has graciously offered to accept them at her home.

A REMINDER TO CHAIRMEN—BE SURE TO PROMOTE KREY CANNED MEATS. YOU CAN WIN A WEST BEND 55 CUP PERCOLATOR FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION IN THIS GAME AND THE NEXT. KREY WILL AWARD ONE COFFEE URN TO THE GROUP HAVING THE LARGEST NUMBER OF KREY LABELS, AND ANOTHER URN TO THE GROUP HAVING THE LARGEST NUMBER PER MEMBER. TRY KREY'S SIX DELICIOUS MEALS-IN-A-MINUTE AND START SAVING TOWARD THAT COFFEE URN TODAY.

With the warm weather upon us, you'll now be supplanting your family menus with salads, juices, iced Chase & Sanborn Coffee, and light Royal desserts. Heaping bowls of salad are most welcome, especially the filling Julienne variety. This is the dish which in addition to the usual ingredients for tossed salad—lettuce, cucumbers, onions, etc.—is garnished with thin strips of cheese, ham and turkey.

As a substitute for ham and turkey, why not use Maplecrest or Russert cold cuts? They will be economical and tasty. A generous serving of Julienne salad with Wise potato chips and rolls as accompaniment, will make an attractive as well as nourishing menu for summer luncheon guests.

When eggs are reasonable (as they are at this time of year) we can use them in many ways. This recipe will be POPular with the youngsters at their noon-time meal.

Baked Eggs Supreme (4 servings)
8 slices white bread
1/4 stick Blue Bonnet Margarine
4 large eggs
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 can Cheese Soup
1/2 cup milk
2 tbl. finely chopped green pepper

Trim crusts from bread and spread slices generously with Blue Bonnet Margarine; placed in a greased 9x9" square casserole. With spoon, make an indentation in the center of each slice. Break an egg into each indentation. Cut a 1 1/2" circle from remaining four slices; place over egg so that yolk peeks through. Combine rest of ingredients and pour over and around egg sandwiches. Bake for 20 minutes at 350°F.

From time to time we receive a call from someone who's not a member of a registered POP group but who has faithfully been saving POP labels. What to do with these, they ask.

Some of our groups are small in membership but large in heart and spirit—all their efforts are directed toward helping others. They raise money for the missions, provide scholarships for needy boys and girls, contribute to inner city needs, etc.

So if you've been buying POP Products and saving the labels, your efforts need not be wasted. Call Mrs. Egan at the Courier and she'll arrange to have your collection turned over to one of the above groups. In this way you'll be indirectly helping to carry on some worthy project.
