DCCW Studies Change In Format

The second section of the study commission of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will meet on Thursday August 3, 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Jack Williams, 70 Idlewood Rd., Brighton.

This group recommends discontinuance of the DCCW as presently structured and diocesan withdrawal from the National Council. Instead, it proposes the establishment of a Council of Catholic Women organized on a purely local level.

contact between these various groups and with other groups in the community, and through a committee system, to furnish its affiliates with program material received from the National Council.

Under the proposed plan, area members would belong as individuals to a local Council of Catholic Women, where personal, not group involvement would be stressed. Women in other sections of the diocese could form similar self-contained Councils maintaining informal rather than organizational contact with the Rochester area group.

At the August 3 meeting, the study commission will consider the various areas in which lay women can serve church and community groups.

Any Catholic woman in Rochester or elsewhere interested in this plan for Council reorganization, is welcome to attend the meeting. For further information call Mrs. Raymond Hensler, section chairman, 415 Yarmouth Rd. 654-8960.

German-American Day Slated at Fair Grounds

German-Americans' contribution to the Rochester area will be highlighted at German Day 1967 to be held Sunday, August 6 at Monroe County Fair Grounds according to John Boerschlein, president of the Federation of German-American Societies.

Grounds will open at 1 p.m. and the program comprising a "gigantic picnic" with band music, food, refreshments and fun will start at 2 p.m.

A representative of the German Consulate in New York will bring greetings of the West German government to all Rochesterians.

Featured on the program will be some of the German singing societies, Teutonia Liedertafel and the Rochester Schwaben Verein are nearing the 100-year mark. Old times groups including the Badisch Maennerchor, Rochester Saengerchor, the Old Comrades Group, the Bavarian Society Alpengruen, the Labor Lyceum Turners, the Steuben Society, the Kolping Family, the Catholic Central Union, the German-American Sports Club, the German-American Society, the Ladies Section of the Teutonia and of the Schwaben Verein will contribute something to the day's program.

Youth groups to participate are the Verein der Donaudaechen, the Youth Chorus of the Saengerchor and the Acrobatic Group of the Labor Lyceum Turners.

The program will emphasize the contribution made by the German immigrants and their descendants to the growth and

Carl Zollo to Exhibit In Fine Art Show

Intricate designs and unusual textures characterize the metal sculpture of Carl Zollo, one of the nationally recognized artists from the Rochester area who is exhibiting his work in the First Lincoln Rochester Trust Company Invitational Fine Art Show in Midtown Mall through August 5.

A native of Rochester and a graduate of R.I.T., Zollo studied sculpture at the Rochester Memorial Art Gallery with William Ehrlich, and recently completed advanced study at the University of Valencia, Spain. Although he has won numerous awards for both painting and sculpture, he is most noted for his brazed and welded steel sculpture.

He is widely recognized as a theatre designer, having done sets for the Arena Theatre, Corning Summer Theatre, Catholic Theatre of Rochester, East Rochester Playhouse and the Blackfriars, Inc. He is actively involved in the productions of the Blackfriars.

The Invitational Fine Art Show is being sponsored as a public service by Lincoln Rochester Trust Company. The winner will receive a $250 or $500 purchase prize for "Best of Show." Robert Skelton, associate professor of art at State University College, Brockport, will serve as judge.

Bishop Fulton J. Sheen

In this new book Bishop Sheen speaks out on nineteen issues that vitally affect man's relationship with himself, his community, the world, and his God. He ventures beyond Christian theology to delve into psychology, modern literature and comparative religion. Ranging from the "God is dead" controversy to how to get out of the rat race, he poses basic questions and gives a thoughtful and inspiring response to the voices of dissent and doubt in today's world.
