Red Carpet Out For St. James Frosh

Twenty-four young women setting out to be nurses were welcomed to St. James Mercy Hospital School of Nursing Wed., Sept. 6 by students and faculty.

The red carpet, literally, was out at the nurses' residence, 12 West Van Scooter St., where the freshmen were greeted with a huge banner, "Welcome Frosh." "Big Sisters" were on hand to meet their "little sisters," assist with the mountains of luggage and to help the girls get settled and acquainted. Mrs. Katherine Horner, housemother, greeted the new girls and their parents; Mrs. Rosemary Danaher, secretary of the school, handled the registration. Sister Mary Thomas and faculty members spent a busy day on the reception line, meeting the newcomers and answering questions.

Orientation At St. Joseph's

Registration for the 37 members of the freshman class at St. Joseph's Hospital School of Nursing took place Sunday, Sept. 10.

At 4 p.m., the new students met formally with Sister Regina, Director of Nursing Education, for a brief orientation. Dinner in the hospital cafeteria was followed by unpacking, settling, and getting acquainted. In this the girls were ably assisted by their "Big Sisters," members of the Junior Class.

On Monday, and continuing throughout the week, the freshmen began their formal orientation to the life which will be theirs for the next three years. Included in the orientation were tours of the hospital and nurses residences, pre-tests in various educational areas, classes in the use of the library, the art of study, guidance and liturgical singing, and discussions explaining the various school and hospital activities and organizations. Formal classes began Friday, Sept. 15.

Social activities included a social hour with members of the faculty on Tuesday afternoon. A picnic supper for the student body was served Monday evening. A party with their Big Sisters helped to stimulate class spirit on Tuesday evening, and on Wednesday the students met the Sisters.

cluded, Miss Carol Switzer of Geneva, who is the recipient of the Bishop Kearney Nursing Scholarship given by the Geneva Chapter of the Rochester Diocesan Council of Catholic Nurses; Miss Mary Ann Tydings, Rochester, awardee of the Monroe County Auxiliary Medical Society Scholarship and Miss Linda Campbell, Hornell, who received the DeSales Nursing Scholarship given annually by the Women's Board of the local hospital.

The new arrivals were honored at a cook-out on the north lawn of the hospital at which time formal initiation started. Orientation to the school and hospital will commence on Thursday. Students and faculty will participate at a 8:00 a.m. Mass at St. Ignace's Loyola Church on Friday, Sept. 8, followed by a breakfast at the hospital.

Sister Mary Thomas, director of the school said, "We are happy to welcome our new students who will be the nurses of tomorrow." Since 1912, when our school opened its doors, we have believed that one of our responsibilities is the education of nurses for nursing. We keep abreast of advances in the field of nursing and feel that we have a program that provides optimal opportunity to meet the nursing needs of our community."

Fisher Names Vice-President

Basilian Father Joseph B. Dorsey, dean of St. John Fisher College since 1961, has been named vice president for academic affairs, effective with the opening of the new school year.

According to Father Charles J. Lavery, Fisher president, and Mr. Robert B. Wegman, chairman of the Fisher Board of Regents, the promotion reflects Father Dorsey's role in the growth of St. John Fisher. He will continue as dean of the college and assume additional academic responsibilities.

Summer Study

Carl Biagetti, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biagetti of Salt Point Rd., Watkins Glen, has just returned from summer studies at the University of Florence in Italy.

Biagetti has received his diploma for his courses there and will return to Georgetown University in Washington, D.C. as a junior, majoring in linguistics. He has also received a certificate for translating from Georgetown University.
