

Arts Center Gala Opening At Nazareth

Brooks Atkinson, Lieutenant Governor Malcolm Wilson, local and state officials and the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra will help Nazareth College formally dedicate its new 4 million dollar Fine Arts Center Saturday, October 21 at 8 p.m.

Atkinson, long-time dean of New York drama critics, will be one of the featured speakers during the dedication of the building which will provide the focal point for the arts on campus for the enrichment of both students and members of the community. It will house the Art, Music and Speech Departments.

The air-conditioned building, made of tapestry brick with large expanses of grey-tinted glass, forms three separate, yet interrelated sections, unified by a central court. It has already achieved national prominence as a winner in the First Honor Award in the annual design program of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Atkinson, who retired as drama critic of the New York Times in 1960, is the only critic to have a major New York Theatre re-named after him. In addition, his World War II reporting earned him a Pulitzer Prize, the highest award in the field of journalism.

Currently his persuasive pen has been active in the attempt to preserve American wildlife and the natural beauties of the country. He is also the author of a number of books which reveal a broad range of interests ranging from ornithology to early New England writers.

In addition to Lieutenant Governor Wilson, speakers will represent a wide range of associations and groups who shared in the establishment of the new Arts Center.

Included are: Dr. William S. Fuller, Director Higher Education Facilities Planning for the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare; Rochester

Mayor Frank Lamb; President of the County Legislature, Kenneth Courtney; and Paul Spiegel, Supervisor of the Town of Pittsford. Very Rev. Charles Lavery, C.S.B., will represent the Joint College Fund.

Representing the architects Giffis and Rossetti, will be Louis Rossetti. Former Mayor Peter Barry will introduce the speakers, and the invocation will be offered by Bishop Kearney, who will also represent the diocese. Otto Shults, chairman of the board of Nazareth College will welcome the assemblage and introduce Sister Helen Daniel, S.S.J., Chambers, tenor, and Earl Obermeyer, bass.

The musical program will be led off by a selection of "Festive Music" written especially for the opening of the Arts Center by Dr. David Feller, member of the Nazareth faculty and director of the Rochester Chamber Orchestra and the Opera Theatre of Rochester.

Samuel Jones and Laslo Somogyi will both conduct the Rochester Philharmonic in special selections. Somogyi's selection "Te Deum" will conclude the program. He will be assisted by the Rochester Choral: Milford Fargo, director; Ardis Obermeyer, soprano; Margaret Sige, alto; Granville

Following the official dedication the New York City Ballet will follow-up the official dedication with two programs on Sunday, October 22, which will consist of demonstrations and lectures. The first, at 3 p.m., will be for alumnae and their husbands; the second, at 8 p.m., will be for students. Tours will be conducted before and after each performance.

Also beginning October 21 and continuing through the month of November will be an art exhibit "American Masters of Abstraction." The collection of paintings will be shown in the Auditorium Gallery.

Seminary to Host Adult Scout Leaders

Hot on the heels of a successful Boy Scout retreat, St. Bernard's Seminary will again open its doors to adults involved in the Scouting movement in the Rochester diocese on November 10-11, when the seminarians will host and conduct a two-day study and workshop program called "Scouter Development."

Recognizing the vital role of adult leadership in Scouting, the program aims to motivate the adult leader to take his place in the life and mission of the Church. The program will include group study sessions and lectures on Vatican II's insights on the Church and Christian leadership. The course will be highlighted by a series of round-table discussions relating this to the layman's volunteer work in the various phases of the Scouting program.

The groundwork for "Scouter Development" was laid during the recent Scout retreat at the seminary by Sister Theresa Mary, M.H.S.H., principal of the Assumption School of Religion in Fairport, and Edward Finney, assistant director of Catholic Relationships, B.S.A., and assistant executive secretary of the American Bishops' Committee on Scouting. During the retreat, more than eighty adult leaders heard Sister Theresa Mary speak on a program for Christian education of youth, and Mr. Finney introduce "Scouter Development" as a new approach in promoting and recruiting Christian-formed adult leaders for the Scouting movement.

"Scouter Development" is open to all adults in the diocese interested in Boy Scouting. The program begins at 7 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 10, and continues until 9 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 11. A fee of $7.50 will cover the cost of meals and lodging at the Seminary, and all books and materials used during the course.

Accommodations at the Seminary are limited to thirty participants. Reservations may be made by sending $4.00 in advance to Mr. Maurice Petrin, 19 Straub Road, Rochester, New York, 14620; telephone (716) 895-4129. The event is sponsored by the Rochester Area Catholic Committee on Scouting.

The Water Heater for the Growing Family

Active growing families need lots of hot water. There's many, many, baths, many, many washings and much, much cleaning to be done. And, as the family grows, so grow the number of helpful appliances to make life easier. Soon an automatic dishwasher is added, then a newer and bigger washer—all to keep you, your family and your home as neat as a pin.

But many times, as you grow, your old water heater seems to shrink. You find you're running out of hot water right in the middle of a shower, or the water isn't hot enough for the second batch of clothes. If this is the case—now is the time to switch to the water heater that grows with your family—an A. O. Smith Permaglas gas water heater.

Because A. O. Smith is quality constructed throughout, it's able to keep up with your growing demands. The glass lining is built to take the numerous changes that occurs when converting cold water to hot. And the thick blanket of insulation keeps the hot water in the tank—where you want it!

So, if your old water heater can't keep up with your growing family—stop in and see us. We'll see that you get an A. O. Smith that grows with you.

10 Year Guarantee . . .
If within the 10-year period your tank leaks or you have rusty water due to a defect in the glass lining, you will receive a new water heater free. On any heater purchased after October 1, 1965 installation will also be free within 5 years of purchase.
