WELCOME BACK TO THE Shopping List

Columbia Banking

Ask For a Pop Receipt when you open a new account or add to your existing account at Columbia.

Dear POP Friends,

As you see by the above, COLUMBIA BANKING has rejoined the POP Parade. We know that you'll be happy to hear this good news... so many of you have been making inquiries. Incidentally, Columbia's banking hours have now been extended—they're from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. We hope all our POP Registrants in the Greece area have noticed the beautiful new bank in the round on Ridge Rd. West... it should prove most convenient when they're POP Shopping for values.

So get busy, folks, and put your savings into Columbia accounts. You'll harvest a double crop of earnings—the regular high interest you receive at Columbia, and the valuable POP Points which mean money for your club treasury.

Other POP Advertisers who resigned from the program may also decide to rejoin. Therefore, as we've mentioned before, don't destroy whatever labels you may have from these products. They may still be worth points in the current POP Game.

What is your group's charitable goal? Fund Raising the POP Label saving way is convenient and easy. POP is a way to raise money without asking people for donations, selling chances or tickets, etc. All you need do is ask them to save the labels or other proofs of purchase from products they use regularly. Clip the POP Shopping List from today's COURIER (below) and pass it on to a friend who can join in your label-saving endeavors and help you POP to the TOP in Game No. 3.

However, you too must be on the ball. Have you been saving every POP Label or only those you happen to remember? Why not place a copy of the Shopping List on your kitchen bulletin board or other "eye-catching" spot. Before you stow that trash in the ashcan, check the List... don't dispose of a POP wrapper or lid... it's worth money to your charitable group.

Now that the Football Season is back in full swing, no doubt your living-room or family room becomes a miniature stadium every Saturday and Sunday time to lay in a supply of slips and nibbles. Wise Potato Chips, Pepsi and Seven Up are perfect palate pleasers for Dad or the teens. They'll keep the home fans satisfied until dinner—without spoiling any appetites.

The more rugged members who prefer to brave the elements and watch their heroes perform "in the flesh" will come home cold and hungry. They'll want something quick and they'll want something hot. Krey Canned Meals offer the perfect solution. Just open a can, pop the contents in a pan, and presto—you have a meal in a minute.

IF YOUR NON-PROFIT ORGANIZATION HAS NOT YET DISCOVERED POP FUNDRAISING, JUST FILL OUT THE COUPON BELOW AND MAIL TODAY TO COURIER JOURNAL POP OFFICE, 35 SCIO ST., ROCHESTER, N.Y. 14604.

Mercy Seniors 'Othello' by Collegians At Fine Arts Center

Three Mercy seniors, finalists in the Junior Miss Pageant, fared well in the competitive event which was held at East High School on Oct. 27.

Elaine Bromka, who performed and excerpt from Arthur Miller's play, THE CRUCIBLE, was named first runner-up. With this honor comes a five hundred dollar scholarship and trophy. Elaine also received the title Miss Congeniality, an award based on the votes of the other candidates.

Alice Tallmadge who acted as Juliet in a scene from ROMEO AND JULIET, was voted second runner-up. She received a two hundred fifty dollar scholarship and trophy.

Judy Ranaletta was selected, by the judges, as the contestant having the best talent. She sang "The Impossible Dream" from the Broadway play THE MAN FROM LAMANGA and received a record player as her prize.
