

Seton Ball

by LOUISE WILSON

Louise Wilson, Women's Editor of Station WHAM, is heard eleven times weekly: 9:10 and 9:25 a.m., Monday through Friday; 9:30 a.m. Saturday.

Some five hundred of this area's best-dressed will be dancing on Thanksgiving Saturday night to the music of Sgt. No-well's orchestra at the annual Seton Ball at the Manger Hotel. Some for the first time, others who have never missed the eleven previous. Mrs. James Hotchkiss will be attending for the first time. Her cousin, Mrs. Robert Kurtz will be present for her third Seton Ball. Both these young ladies represent third generation guests at the great Seton Ball.

Susan Kurtz is pictured with her cousin, Cheryl Hotchkiss, each looking her loveliest in an elegant floor length gown. Susan's is aqua pea de sole empire styled gown with front and back panels. Pearls will be her only jewelry. Her auburn hair will be dressed in the latest criss-cross top fashion. Shoes dyed to match her gown complete her costume. Says Suzy, "This will be my third time at the Seton Ball. I just love it. It's so much fun."

Sherry Hotchkiss will wear on her first appearance at the ball a chiffon-over-crepe floor-length sheath in a brilliant shade of peacock blue. A flattery jeweled necklace, her hair worn up, complemented by earrings will make her look very pretty indeed. "I'm looking forward to the Seton Ball so much, my first time, but not the last," declared Mrs. Hotchkiss as she took time off from her job to be photographed for the Courier Journal.
